Day 29

Mother's Day Cards

Mother's Day is this Sunday, and you know what that means. Time to get busy making cards for your Mom or anyone special who is like a Mom to you!

You will need:
Paper
Pencil
Dark Pen or Marker
Markers, crayons or colored pencils

Two of our D51 Artists-in-Residence, Kathy Cotten from Chatfield and Meg Ingraham from Loma and LOM have prepared these guided drawings for you.

You can draw them on a plain piece of paper so your picture may be hung on the wall, or you may fold a piece of paper and draw them on the front to make a card.

Ladybug

Here's how to start drawing a ladybug.

What else do you need to add?

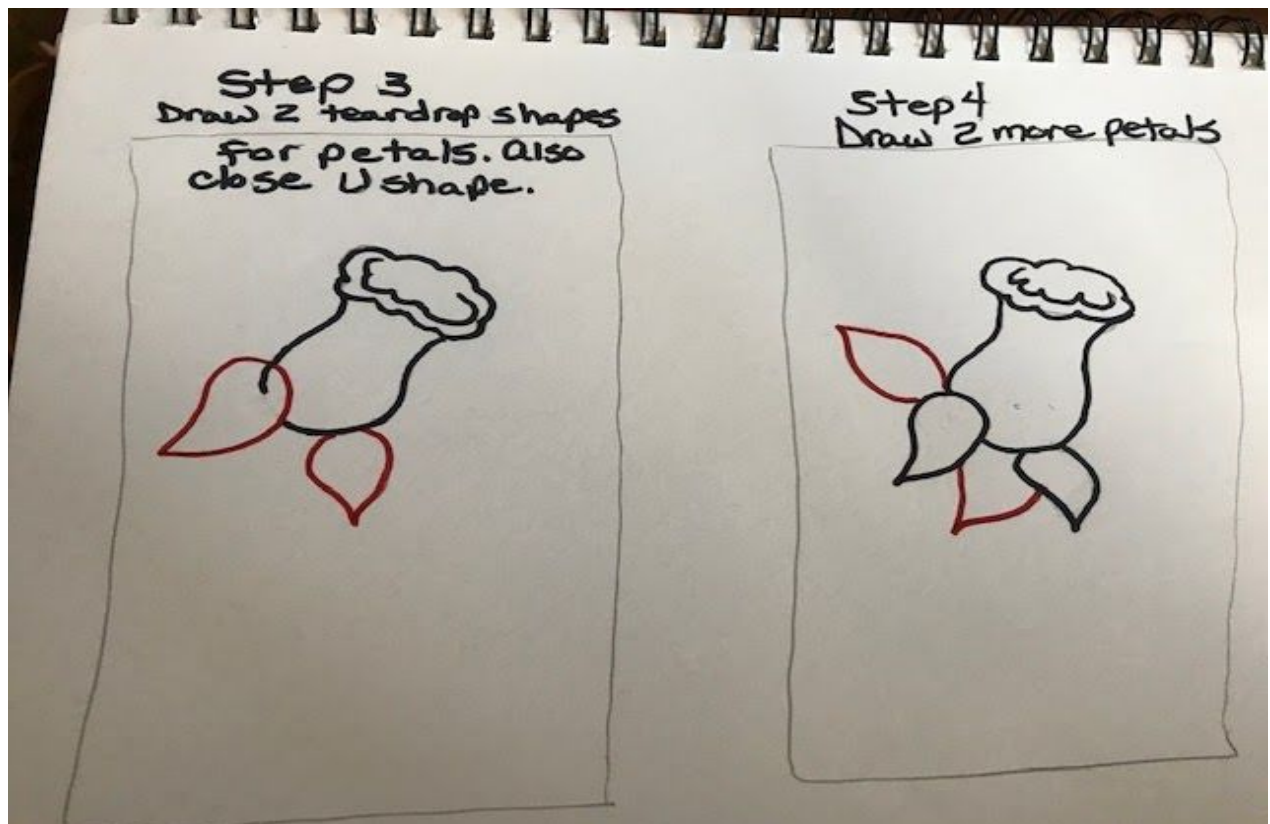

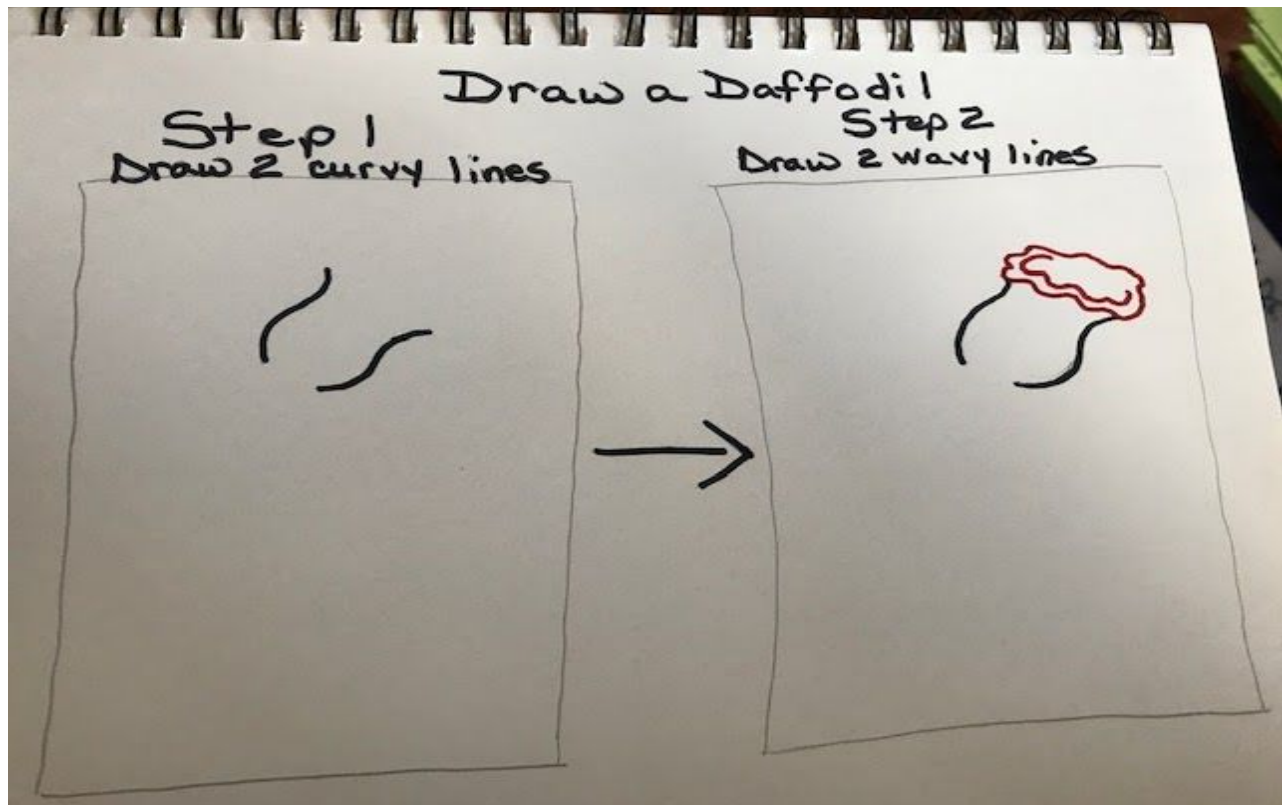

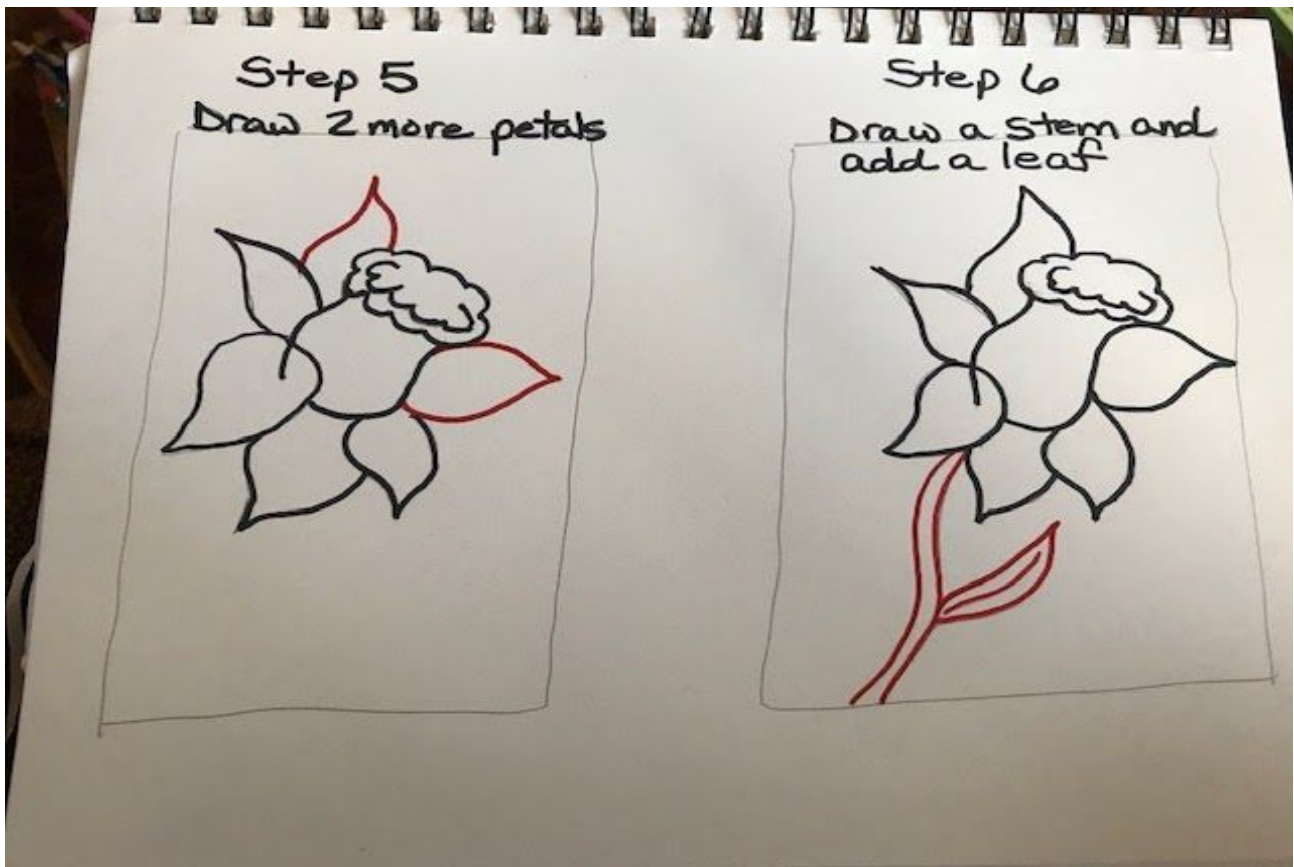

(Check out the next pages to draw a daffodil!)

Daffodil

Here's how to draw a daffodil, step-by-step.

Don't forget to write a personal message and sign your card!
