Journalism I Criteria:

All students who are currently enrolled and meet the criteria below are eligible to become a member of next year's Journalism I class.

- Must be willing to have fun!
- Students must be willing to work on a published book.
- Students must be genuinely interested in working hard on the yearbook and devoting the time and effort it takes.

I meet the qualifications to seek a position working on the yearbook in the Journalism I course as verified by the signatures below.

The following documents are enclosed in this packet:

1. Course Questionnaire
2. Teacher Recommendation forms

Statement of Understanding

- I have read all documents provided and agree to abide by all provisions set forth in this packet.
- Yearbook staff members will be graded on the following: deadline completions, quality of work, participation, and ability to complete assignments, including those after school, at nights, and on weekends. This is a co-curricular course, and students should be prepared and willing to devote time outside of class to this course. We understand that students are involved in other after school activities, and that's great! We will work with your schedule.
- I understand that failure to comply with any of these requirements will result in a lower grade in the course and possibly removal from the course.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

- Do you have a reliable source of transportation for times when you will need to cover after-school, weekend, or night events?

Yearbook Questions

Why do you want to be a member of the yearbook staff? _____

What strengths do you possess that would made you an asset to the yearbook staff? _____

In what extracurricular activities – school and non-school activities – will you be involved next year? (Include clubs, sports, jobs, etc.; and estimate number of hours per week.)

Please write some ideas you have for next year's yearbook. You may include ideas that you liked about past yearbooks you have seen, but also include some of your original ideas.

Teacher Evaluation Form for Yearbook Staff Applicants

Dear Teacher:

Thank you for taking the time to give your valuable input, so we may select the most qualified, highly motivated yearbook staff members possible. The information you share on this form will be kept confidential. After you have completed the form, please place it in my mailbox or send it to my room (1-202) or please inter-office mail to S. Graifer at MHS. Please do not give the form back to the student.

Thank you,
Mrs. Graifer

Teacher's name: _____

Student applicant: _____

Course Name _____

To the best of your knowledge, please rate the applicant from 1 to 10 (1 being the lowest) in each of the following areas:

- _____ Turning in work consistently and on time
- _____ Turning in high-quality work
- _____ Following directions
- _____ Showing responsibility for his or her actions
- _____ Maturity
- _____ Relating well with adults
- _____ Relating well with other students
- _____ Staying focused on his/her own work during class
