The Board of Trustees recommends that the best available strategies and methods for bringing about learning be utilized in the Gulfport School District. The instructional staff will keep abreast of new and more promising instructional ideas and practices developed in schools throughout the nation and apply those which apparently have the potential for improving the learning program in the District's schools.

Methods will be focused on differentiating instruction by:

1. appraisal of individual learning style, abilities, disabilities;
2. assessment of individual learning needs;
3. development, implementation, and evaluation of individual learning programs; and
4. the modification of individual learning programs.
