

LEADERSHIP TRAITS

Integrity – uprightness of character and soundness of moral principle, absolute truthfulness and honesty.

Knowledge – acquired information, including professional knowledge and an understanding of your men.

Courage – a mental quality that recognizes fear of danger or criticism but enables a man to proceed in the face of it with calmness and firmness.

Decisiveness – ability to reach decisions promptly and to announce them in a clear, forceful manner.

Dependability – the certainty of the proper performance of duty.

Initiative – seeing what needs to be done and commencing a course of action, even in the absence of orders.

Tact – the ability to deal with others without creating offense.

Justice – the quality of being impartial and consistent in exercising command.

Enthusiasm – the display of sincere interest and exuberance in the performance of duty.

Bearing – creating a favorable impression, appearance, and personal conduct at all times.

Endurance – the mental and physical stamina measured by the ability to stand pain, fatigue, distress and hardship.

Unselfishness – avoiding of providing of one's comfort and personal advancement at the expense of others.

Loyalty – faithfulness to country, corps, unit, seniors and subordinates.

Judgement – the quality of weighing facts and possible solutions on which to base sound decisions.