

DONNA KLEIN JEWISH ACADEMY

Donna Klein Jewish Academy High School History Teacher for 2024-25

Donna Klein Jewish Academy, an independent non-profit school for children grades K-12, is a Jewish community day school serving families from a broad spectrum of Jewish backgrounds and religious practices. The school was founded in 1979 and lives its mission: to educate our children and the greater DKJA community to be knowledgeable and responsible citizens of the world, committed to Jewish values and lifelong learning.

The Claire and Emanuel G. Rosenblatt High School at Donna Klein Jewish Academy seeks an energetic, engaging, and experienced high school History instructor for the 2024-25 school year.

The ideal candidate should have experience teaching at the High School (HS) level and be capable of teaching students of different levels, including AP, Honors, and Regular. In addition to being passionate about working with teenagers, the ideal candidate demonstrates flexibility and adaptability, has a strong desire to be part of a community, has an understanding of differentiated instruction, and is comfortable with technology and its use in the classroom setting.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Teaching a minimum of 4 classes (potentially AP, Honors and/or Regular) in three or more of the following areas: Human Geography, World History, US History, US Government, and Economics.
- Involvement in additional roles within the HS, which may include serving as a club advisor or grade leader

Candidates should hold an undergraduate degree in History or Education. Master's degree preferred.

Qualified candidates should send a resume and cover letter to the Humanities Dept. Chair Dr. Elizabeth Restivo at restivoe@dkja.net

In the cover letter, please indicate courses you are currently able to teach.
