

Davie County Schools Names Sam Brown as Principal

Mocksville, NC – February 8, 2024 - Sam Brown has been named principal of Davie County Early College High School and Davie County Virtual School.

Brown has been assistant principal at William R. Davie since October 2019, and previously served as assistant principal at Cooleemee from 2016-2019. He started his teaching career at Stokes Early College High School in Walnut Cove and brings seven years of Early College experience to this new role. Brown attended the PTEC Aspiring Principals Academy, was a Class of 2020 Leadership Davie Graduate and was Davie County Schools' AP of the Year in 2020/2021. He earned his Master in School Administration from Appalachian State University, and his Bachelor of Arts-English (Secondary Education) from UNC-Greensboro.

“I am very excited to join our school families,” said Brown. “I am looking forward to helping the students’ academic growth, as well as social emotional wellbeing. I believe programs like Early College and Virtual School allow greater opportunity to impact the lives of students and really empower them to reach their goals.”
