The King's Academy Announces New Junior High Principal, David Huang

SUNNYVALE, CA, April 11, 2024

The King's Academy has announced the appointment of Mr. David Huang as the new junior high principal, beginning July 1st.

Head of School, Jeff Freeman, commented on Huang's selection: "After interviewing several quality candidates, David was prayerfully selected as his passion for Christian education and ministry plus a wealth of experience set him apart. David is a builder of teams, and we are so excited to welcome him to TKA's team."

David Huang is currently the Head of School at Los Altos Christian School (LACS), where he has served for two years. Prior to LACS, David was a principal at Silicon Valley International School from 2018-2022.

David Huang

Mr. Huang was born in Taiwan and immigrated to the United States with his family as a middle school student. Around this time, he encountered Christ and perceived his calling to serve the next generation. Huang obtained a BA and an MA in Child and Adolescent Development from San Jose State University. He also graduated from Western Seminary with an MA in Ministry and Leadership to further equip himself for ministry. David Huang is a teaching pastor for River of Life Christian Church, where he has spent many years serving in the church's children and youth ministry. He and his wife, Chi, have been married for four years. They enjoy traveling, reading, bike riding, and cooking together.

As a Christian school administrator and educator, Mr. Huang believes his primary goal is "to empower the faculty and staff team to cultivate a nurturing and challenging environment. Ultimately, we want to create a place where students are challenged academically, socially, and spiritually, discovering their identity in Christ and positively impacting the world."

Huang will be the second junior high principal in TKA's history, succeeding Jack Ferrante who announced in February that he would retire from The King's Academy at the end of the school year after serving TKA for 21 years.

The King's Academy, an independent college preparatory school for 990 students in grades 6-12, is a Christ-centered school that inspires academic excellence, servant leadership, and enduring relationships. The King's Academy is accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). TKA is currently accepting applications for the 2024-2025 school year. For more information about TKA, please visit www.tka.org.
