

School Board President Joe Hufford read a statement at the Board meeting before the vote, "I support placing Mr. Thompson on paid administrative leave effective immediately through June 30, 2024. I feel the issue involving Mr. Thompson has divided the school and the community at large and has become a huge distraction from our primary mission, which is to provide educational instruction to the children at Rossville Schools."