Sister of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament, Teachers

ON THE DAWN OF YOUR SECOND

ERA OF GIVING...

His Excellency, The Most Reverend
MARIANO S. GARRIGA, D. D., LL. D.,
Bishop of Corpus Christi

To commemorate your silver episcopal and golden sacerdotal anniversaries, and inspiring devotion to the youth of this diocese...

WE DEDICATE OUR DAWN....

SISTER MARY XAVIER
Teacher, Librarian, Sponsor

For 50 years of service above and beyond the call of duty, as a guiding instructor, veteran novelist, librarian, and above all, shining example to the students of IWA...

THE AURORA

Sister Caroline's Junior Religion Class recites the rosary at the grotto as St. Bernadette did over 100 years ago.

Dragons, rabbits, and frogs captured the attention of amateur puppeteers, Pat Eaker, M. B. Mireur and Marilyn Kyle.

LANGUAGE

ARTS

Journalism students and Mrs. Daugherty execute a monthly newspaper duty--reading proof.

Bursting with knowledge, the American History class's College Bowl panels vie for honors under direction of Mrs. Sheridan and Ricki Shults.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Annette Suldon utilizes world maps to get her point across in World History current events.

A plane cutting a cylinder puzzles solid geometry disciples Joyce Waida, Pat Murray, and Rita Mabry, under the sympathetic gaze of Sister Catherine.

MATHEMATICS

"X"... what can its value be? Sister Anna Marie's Algebra I students set out on their quest for a solution at the blackboard.

Under the direction of Sister Catherine French I students merrily conjugate verbs.

Spanish culture is displayed by Nora Garcia, Brenda Brunkenhoefer, Irma Salazar, Carolyn Miles, Theresa Seward members of Mrs. Foster's Spanish Class.

he came, he saw, he conquered-- So say Sister Luke's Latin students, Yvonne Flanagan, Joan Southard, Martha Holmes, Nancy C. Miller, and Carolyn Bane.

LANGUAGES

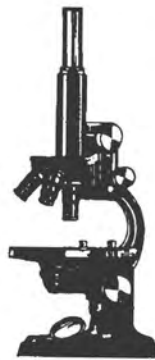

Mrs. Macmillan's Chemistry plots to level the school to the ground.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Unknown realms of science are explored by Rosa de Luna in Sister Jeanne Francis' Biology Class.

Inspecting fossils and plant life--General Science students are supervised by Sister Anita Therese.

One mistake in Bookkeeping, and all is ruined, but Sister Anne's expression says that Jo Ann Sturn has come out ahead with correct tabulations.

(A good business education)

(is a most valuable asset)

BUSINESS EDUCATION

"Your 'ish' is 'chai'" Sister Xavier points out to shorthand transcriber, Mary Beth Prior.

HOME-ECONOMICS

Cholera, whooping cough or virus? Guess again. It's only Pamela Johnson, Maria Luisa Gonzales, and Patricia Luczak, prospective homemakers, giving each other pointers in home nursing.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

These freshman P.E. students will soon sport well developed biceps under the guidance of Miss Knocke.

Fine Arts

Under the creative hands of music appreciation students Kathy Celum and Martha Johnson, Madame Butterfly comes to life.

Sounding the overture, the orchestra completes its spring concert under the direction of Mrs. Boyd.

Singing a tribute to the '61 graduates, the Glee Club makes its final appearance of the year at Commencement.

SENIORS

Senior Officers - The girls who led us through our Senior Year L to R. Treas.-Sharron Miller, Sec.-Jo Anne Doffing, Pres.-Lillian Anderson, V. Pres.-Mary Helen Kennedy.

Mary Alice Walsh, Merle Walker, and Mary Jane Blaschke enjoy the coveted Senior Door privilege.

Sally Caddell and Kathryn Drozd admire their most precious possessions, their Senior Rings.

During the initiation of "Stinky Fish," highlight in the Senior Year, honorable Carol Ann McGill is shown "proper respect" by some understanding 46 Freshmen.

The formidable Stanisluke Stars line up against the Freshmen Skeeters for an unforgettable "Powder-Puff" football game.

Sharon Ulrick and Rosalie Malish help Karen Sue Gregorczyk get ready for those three glorious days at the Flying L Dude Ranch -- April 7, 8, and 9.

College Day's found Seniors off on trips to Incarnate Word College and Our Lady Of the Lake College in San Antonio, and to Del Mar here in Corpus Christi. Merle Walker and Marie Dierickx enhance the beautiful campus of I. W. C.

Judy Flores leads Jo Anne Doffing, Mary Beth Snapka, Mary Dolores Ceballos, and Kathy Celum in a panel during Career Study made by the Seniors in Religion.

Mary Alice Walsh was announced as Valedictorian.

Patricia Murray was Salutatorian.

Getting measured for Cap and Gown--what a thrill! Here Sister Stanislaus gets Rita Mabry's head size while Mary Beth Priour waits.

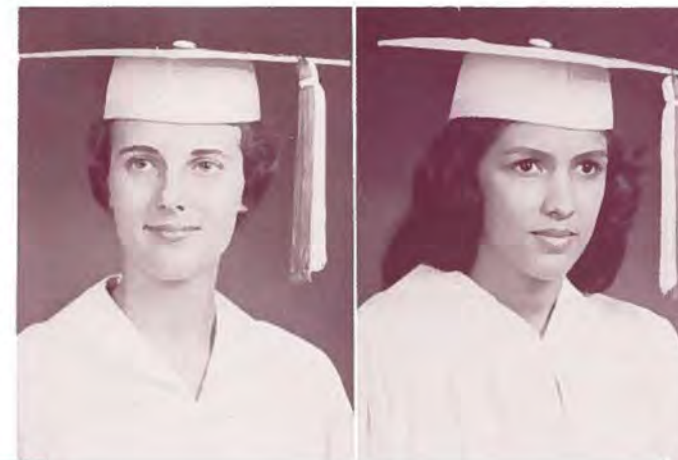

Queen Susanne Krause, escorted by Anthony Pall Jr., reigned over the Sixth Mardi Gras Ball. Other I.W.A. Seniors honored as Royal Princesses were Lillian Anderson, Patricia Murray, Judith Flores, Jeanette Fogaley, Josephine Levek, Mary Alice Walsh, and Margaret Sefcik.

Liz Petru prepares for that once-in-a-lifetime dance, the Senior Prom. She will drift into her "Saynora"

TEACHERS

APOSTLES

Jill Hayes operates the newly purchased machine for the apostles' snow-cone sales, their only money-raising project.

HELPERS

Charity begins at home, but Soda lists Pat Murray, Denise Sheridan, and Dorothy Hetherington help spread it to the city's poor during the Sodality's annual old clothes drive.

Expressions on the faces of Civics Club officers, Katherine Drozd, Jo Anne Doffing, Merle Walker, Elizabeth Petru, and Beth Elzner, show that it has been a "good year" for the club.

CIVICS CLUB

Sister Stanislaus, hurriedly passes legislation to honor civics teachers as Gov. Price Daniel, Sister Genevieve, Liz Petru, and Merle Walker lend moral support during the Civics Club's trip to Austin.

Mary Helen Kennedy, Sodality Prefect, raps the meeting to order, as other officers, Liz Petru, Mary Beth Priour, Alice Bockholt, and sponsor Sr. Xavier prepare notes.

With the finesse of a detective, Ronnie Mendleski uncovers a scheme concocted by Mattie Pelligrino as Charlotte Hentges aids a stricken football player Carl Walker, in the annual 3-act play, presented jointly by the St. Genesius Drama Club and C.C.A.

DRAMA CLUB

Preparations for the awards party are given the once over by Drama Club officers, Carol Ann McGill, parliamentarian; Mattie Pelligrino, secretary; Billie Jimm Van Dyke, vice president; Nancy Turpin, president, and Sister Mary Benedict, sponsor. Not pictured is Mary Beth Mireur, treasurer.

What is in store for the Research Council? Officers, Sally Caddell, Kathleen Kennedy, Mary Kris Malins and Jean May, plan a roster of activities that includes hosting the Regional Science Fair, field-trip, and participation in the science fair at St. Edwards in Austin.

RESEARCH COUNCIL

Stopping for the pause that refreshes, Research Council members, Susie O'Brian, Diane Moore, Mary Kris Malins, Jean May, Kathleen Kennedy, and parents, Mrs. T.P. O'Brian and Mrs. Van Kennedy, enjoy the surfs roar at the annual field trip picnic at Rockport.

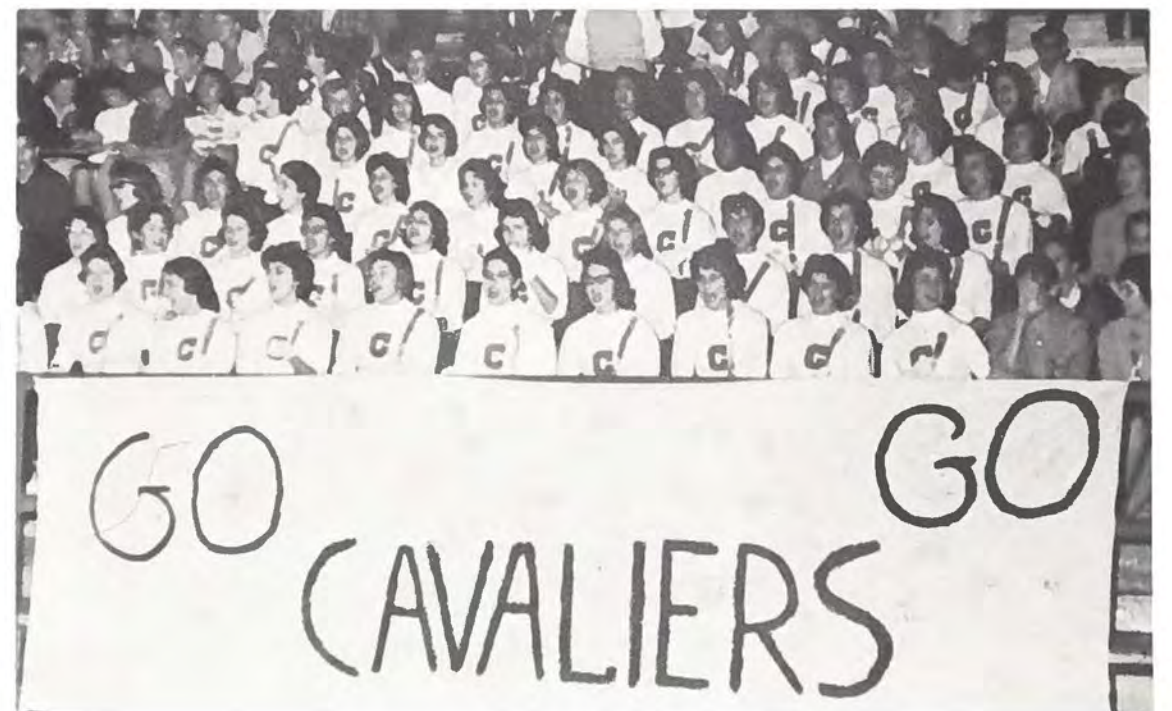

Togas display the Roman patriotism of the Latin Club members.

Jump ball: Angels bristle in excitement and attempt to intercept the basketball.

Fresh from the basketball court, Angels Carolyn Otto, Delores Washington, Barbara Wiedler, Kathleen Kennedy, Laura Lea Hooker, Martha Washington, Tina Holland, and Delia Garcia stop for a breather.

Joleen Edgerton displays the award for outstanding service rendered by the IWA chapter of the Red Cross while Laura Hooker, Jo Walsh, Sister Genevieve and Rosalie Malish, look proudly on.

BOARDERS

Girls from all over the state and from Mexico journey to Corpus Christi to obtain a Catholic education at IWA. Being natural hams, they posed for this picture.

ACTIVITIES

Freshman Paula Bonnet prepares to lug her newly acquired books home after registering at IWA while Susan Green and Rose Wagner watch. Sister Caroline mans her year-long position in the bookroom.

Ben-Hur and Messala glare from the wall at the IWA-CCA crowd at the Tower to view the show at cut rates.

"Is it alive?" muse General Science adventurers and their chief, Sister Anita Therese at a field trip to Padre Island.

Co-partners in the school bowling league, Sally and Sandra Caddell, prepare for a strike.

Receiving last minute instructions from Director, Sister Mary Benedict the cast of "Dark Eyes," Cornelia Houseman, Nancy Turpin, Billie Van Dyke, Mary Beth Mireur, and Tari Tangney, touch up their greasepaint.

Four sophomores employ colored cardboard and a ladder to decorate the cafeteria lights for a dance.

Two hours of folk songs are filled by the Madrigal Singers of A&I College before a special IWA assembly.

Political differences are aired between Nancy Miller, Donna Donovan, Barry Flippen, and Tari Tangney, while Marilyn Kyle referees.

The program for the RCCY Convention is discussed by Susan Meurer, Mike Speed, Jeanette Stryk, and Father Patrick J. Sheeran.

WE HONOR OUR FAVORITES AT OUR...

CHRISTMAS FORMAL

.... WHEN WE COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT!!!

Mexican Supper guests are entertained by dancers from the Spanish Club.

"Little Women" Kathy Chapman, Gwen Buckley, Cornelia Houseman, Pat Gudka, Charlotte Hentges, Judy White entertain the students at the student council Christmas party in the cafeteria.

Student Council member Paula Thompson tries to persuade Edwina Dement to buy the Council's merchandise--decals, directories, bookcovers and penants.

Newspaper staff members, Beth Moorman, Laura Lea Hooker and Nancy Turpin, review the critique for the CROWN at the 4th Annual Journalism Workshop at San Antonio.

Starting the new year out right, Joleen Edgerton and Marilyn Atkins display their patriotism by saluting the flag.

Grouped around food and Peace Pilgrim, the Angels basketball team recount their experiences at the Houston Tourny, where they won a Sportsmanship Award.

Deep thought descends upon students as noted Catholic journalist and social worker, Dorothy Day expresses her views.

Finale for the Drama Club's Play Festival was the presentation of awards for best actor and actress by Father Patrick Koch, S. J., to Nancy Turpin and Douglas Walters.

Posing against the seashore backdrop of the Freshman Style Show, models Patty Heck, Patsy Tolin, and Laura Veselka display their togs.

Spanish Club members, Dolores Garcia, Sandra Perez, and Jeanette George pause during their tour of Monterray Mexico.

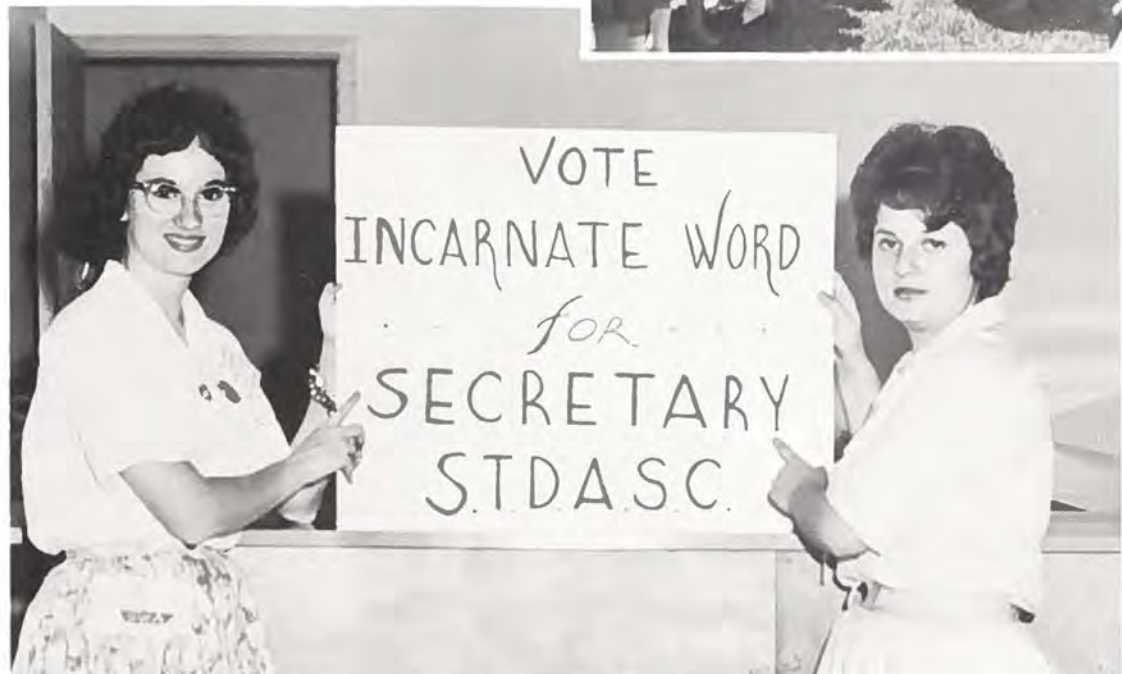

To honor Mother Patricia on her day, this motly group of sophomores re-enacted her life.

A victor's smile warms the face of Mary Nowicki, winner of the girls' division of the South Texas Regional Science Fair.

Evelyn Soliz leads the seniors in mourning with the sad tempo of the drum while juniors form an honor guard for Senior Burial.

History was made when, due to campaign gimmicks such as the ones displayed by Jo Ann Doffing, Anne Goestch, IWA became secretary of S. T. D. A. S. C., the first Catholic school to do so.

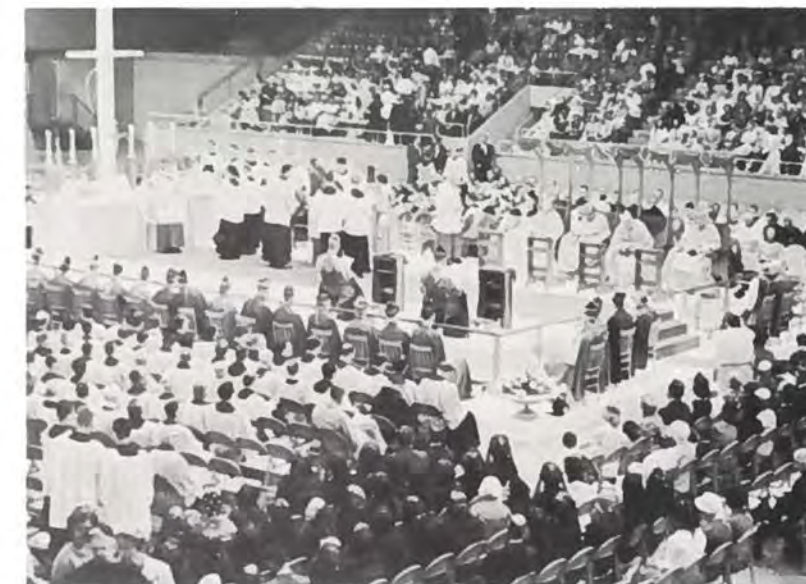

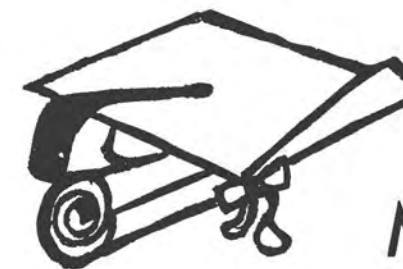

Nancy Turpin completes the marquee publicizing the April 23, Deanery CYO Convention.

"We have kidnapped your sponsors!" reads the junior ransom note delivered by Sr. class president Lillie Anderson to her fellow Bandera-Senior-Trip departees.

Student Council president and the president-elect, enjoy handing out the certificates that are presented each year to the best of the council members.

Cardinals, Archbishops, and bishops were among the faithful present at Bishop Garrigas Jubilee Mass held at the Memorial Coliseum.

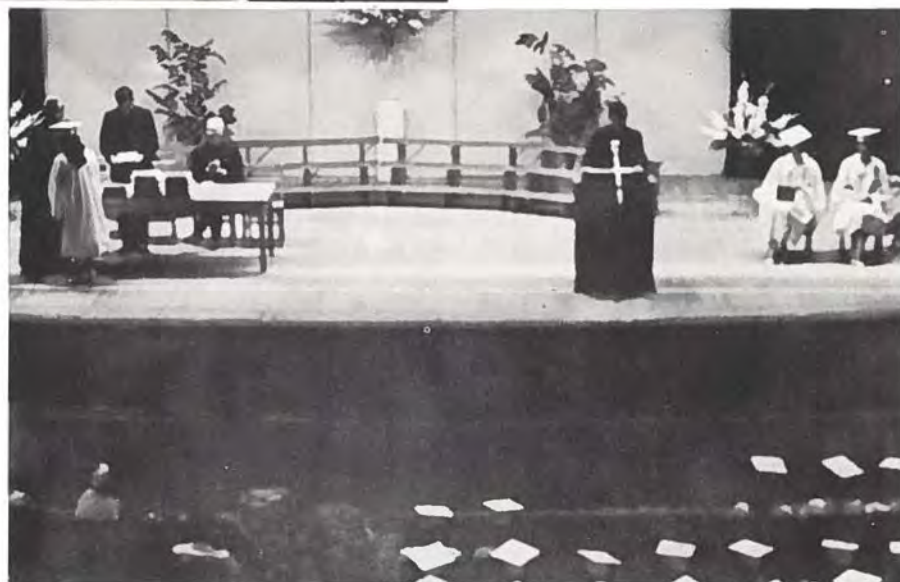

Beaming with approval, Freshman officers--Dawn Dorsey, Susie O'Brien, Margaret Victor, and Grace Ford accept the trophy for winning the races during the School Spirit Day sports events.

Mothers and daughters alike bow their heads in reverence as the priest conducts the Mass preceding the Mother-Daughter Banquet held at I. W. A.

Billie Jimm Van Dyke and Mary Lane Richie carefully inspect the Japanese lanterns that were to be used as part of the Prom decorations.

Reception of diplomas puts the finishing touches on the seniors' year and marks the end of another school year for the rest of the student body.
