A Word about Incarnate Word...

The general PURPOSE OF EDUCATION in IWA is to train young girls to become, UNDER THE INSPIRATION OF DIVINE GRACE and the ORDERLY PURSUIT OF INTELLECTUAL AND MORAL TRUTH, true Christian women. Every phase of learning and training is designed to DEVELOP THE SOUL AND BODY, of students that they may FULFILL THE PURPOSE OF EXISTENCE in this world and the next.

Friend . . .

Each term is concrete in truth. As principal and teacher, you are a major factor in the training of more Christian women like yourself. As a leader of youth, your exemplary faith and character serve as a model for us. Yet you are a friend indeed whenever we have need. Thus, our printed applause; the dedication of our yearbook to you, Sister, for nine years of service to IWA.

Religion

Sister Mary Caroline's Senior religion class looks forward to every Monday and their Sunday Visitor reports.

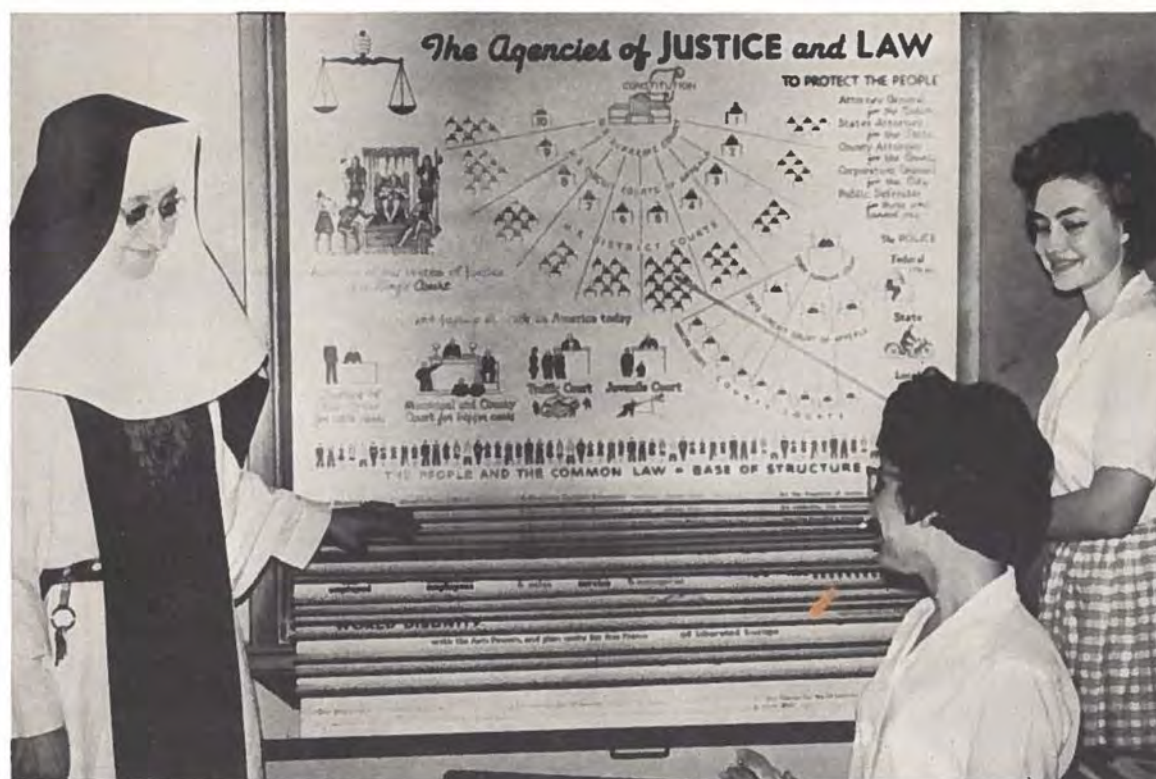

Junior, Miriam Mellon gives the exact location of the Phillipines judging from the smile on Sister Mary Genevieve's face in American History.

Social

Joan Knapp and Iona Chatman give Sister Mary Philomena a hand in pointing out various locations on the World History map.

Prompted by Elisa Smith, Kathy Chapman struggles to find the right answer for Sister Mary Stanislaus in her Government class.

Sciences

"I think it's around here, SOMEplace!!" New and unheard of places pop up in the newly-in-augurated World Geography class as Sister Mary Stanislaus prompts bewildered senior Anna Maria Garcia.

Helpful hints as well as a few corrections from the adept hands of Mrs. Daugherty guide Mary Jane Victor to producing a perfect essay.

Language

The daily routine of Mrs. Ducote's English classes begins with the unveiling of the record player and the literary records.

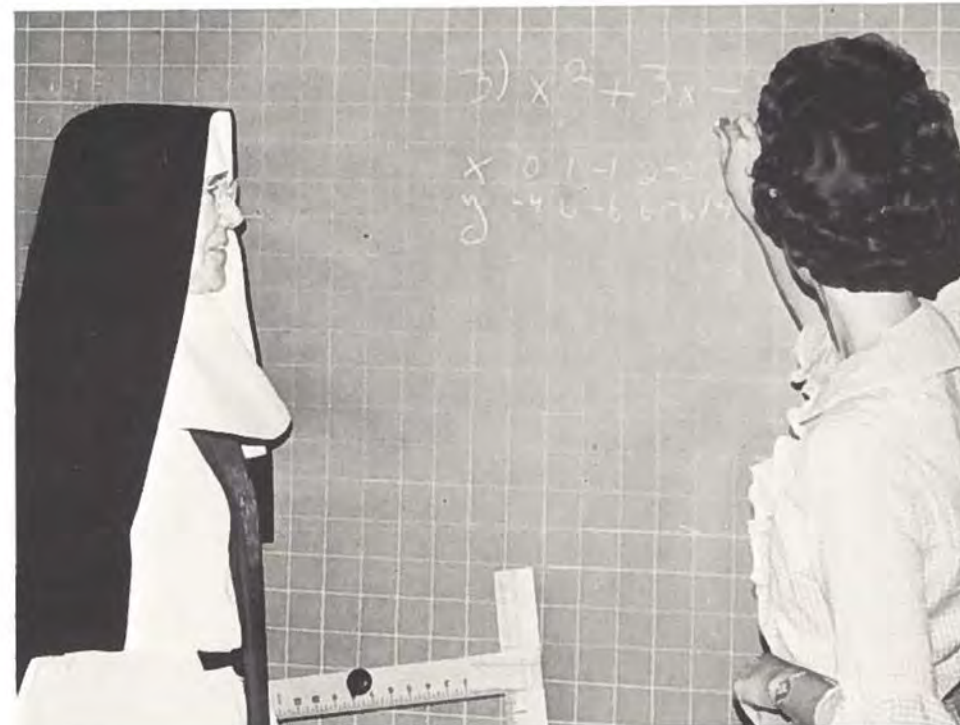

The bewildering phase of learning the distinctions in the use of possessive nouns is readily explained by Sister Agnes Marie's clear demonstrations.

Arts

Flowing gowns of pink, blue, and green dazzle an enraptured audience as the speech class performs on stage.

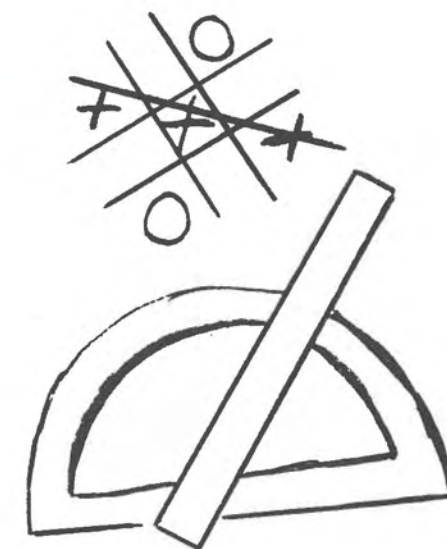

A rugged workout is in store for Delores Cykala as Sister Anna Marie strives to find out how much Algebra she knows.

Mathematics

Sister Mary Catherine looks hopelessly on as one of her trigonometry students, Dianne Schonefeld, makes a merry mess of her blackboard.

Perhaps the combined efforts of Mary Alice Guzman and Sister Catherine will confer knowledge of the present tense on the French I students.

L a n g u a g e s

"This sentence will prove whether Latin has made you feminae or puellae," challenges Sister Mary Luke to her students.

From English to Spanish, Patty Rodholm and Maria Salinas carry out Mrs. Norman Foster's wishes.

It's a real image that is formed when Mrs. Macmillan's physics class finds the reflection of knowledge in light waves hitting a curved mirror.

Natural

Sciences

"With a little help, Sister Anita Therese, we could blow up the school," quip Carolyn and Marilyn Miles in unison.

Anything is liable to pop out when Sister Jeanne Francis' Biology students fiddle with Mother Nature. Here Shelley Bourdon, Laura Camp, and Brenda Brunkenhoefer experiment with the unknown.

It's not all Greek to Sister Mary Xavier's shorthand students as she puts the daily lesson on the board.

Business Education

Teaching ten fingers to touch fifty-one type-writer keys requires untold patience from Sister Mary Anne.

There's always Sister Mary Ruth at the adding machine to help her bookkeeping students like Dorothy Hetherington and Angela Fernandez.

Physical

E d u c a t i o n

"Hey! Miss Emily, stop leaning!"
yell six P. E. students in unison, as they imitate the leaning tower of Pisa.

Homemaking

With a good dose of Sister James Marie's Homemaking course, every girl will be a modern homemaker, the Christian way.

ACTIVITIES

The Orchestra's harpist, Elisa Smith, won't be handicapped when she reaches heaven.

The Incarnate Word Academy Glee Club girls stand ready to prove to Mrs. Elaine Glenn that they can "sing like birds." Mrs. Glenn also teaches the Orchestra its music.

From her many stacks of record albums, Sister Mary George selects her favorites so that Music Appreciation students Bertha Saenz, Cornelia Houseman, Anne Palmer, and Magdalen Leal can benefit from good music, too.

Memories are made

Most People don't realize how much IWA assemblies are enjoyed by the students, but future fish get a glimpse of the fun on their annual look-see of the school, Future Freshmen Day.

35 seconds to go! as eager eaters Alice Bockholt, Pam Johnson, Linda Brennin, and Brenda Brunkenhoefer, representing respective classes, vie for the 61-62 School Spirit Day trophy. The apple-pie industry may not have profited from the proceedings but the girls' school spirit was certainly brought forth in overwhelming quantities. The day was brought to a close with the awarding of the trophy to the Sophomore class.

Bandera Or Bust! This was the familiar battle cry heard from anxious seniors on their senior trip. From the looks of things they made it. Musta' been early in the mornin' when Anne, Moggie, Earline, Ricki, Diane, Mary Jo, Beth and Eleanor posed for this. It was heard said that Bandera would never be the same.

Blessings and benediction are imparted to CCD members by Msgr. Michael Adams at the installation of officers and new members.

To fill the slots on the S.C. calendar, officers Beth Riemer, president; Sister Agnes Marie, advisor; Bessie Dan Weil, vice pres; Paula Thompson, secretary; Joyce McCullough, treasurer; Ricki Shults, parliamentarian; Rosa Garcia, historian; Cathy Sparkman, reporter; convene in a pre-season session.

Student Council--

Bracing themselves for the next onslaught of Favorite Winners at the S.C. sponsored Christmas Formal are MC Barbara Lederle, assisted by Gracie Gonzalez.

Reward for a job well done was the annual S.C. Banquet held at Luby's Cafeteria. Eager eaters are Patty Rodholm, Dorothy Cassara, Bessie Weil, Joyce McCullough, and Beth Riemer.

Voice of the Student

Stacking and stuffing envelopes advertising the IWA Fund Drive was an early morning chore for SC members Joyce McCullough, Ricki Shults, Mary Alice Bollom, Ana Marie Garcia, Beth Riemer, and Rosa Garcia, who were aided by Manuel and Bonafacio.

Examining the official Resolution by the Texas Senate to welcome the IWA Civics Club during its jaunt to the state capitol at Austin, are Civics Club officers, Dorothy Tepera, vice president; Diane Schonefeld, secretary; Ricki Shults, president; Gracie Gonzalez, treasurer; and Sister Stanislaus, advisor.

Civics Club

Future Teachers

Caught during a planning session for activities for the St. John Bosco Chapter of Future Teachers of America are charter officers Dorothy Tepera, secretary; Ana Marie Garcia, president; Patty Rodholm, vice-president. Not pictured is Sister Philomena, faculty advisor.

Trapped in a cross-current of their own sniveling pettiness, the characters from this scene in "Star Song" Drama Club's Christmas play, directed by Mary Beth Mireur, are Kathy Chapman, Barbara Finnegan, Martha Johnson, Karen Murray, Margaret Mary Grimes, and Beth Mooreman.

Drama Club

Anything from a fireplace to a Roman toga is likely to turn up in the Drama Club props closet. St. Genesius Drama Club officers Beth Mooreman, secretary; Barbara Finnegan, vice-president; Nancy Turpin, president; and Sister Mary Benedict, sponsor, have just unearthed buried treasure: lighting apparatus.

"Oui, c'est belle!" agrees Sr. Mary Catherine, French Club sponsor, with officers Bertha Saenz, president, Mary Tolin, secretary; Carolyn Finnegan, vice president.

Junior Red Cross

To maintain a full emergency staff for mishaps named Carla, or anything else, Laura Lea Hooker, Isabella Camp, and Sr. Genevieve, Jr. Red Cross Sponsor, sort disaster cards, and prepare to recruit forces.

Angels

"Get that BALL, Rosemary!!" is the battle cry as determined ANGELS clamber to intercept a jump ball.

FAVORITES

"Let's hear it, Pep Squad!" urge the IWA-CCA cheerleaders, Carol Jo Clark, Judy Walden, Judy White, Dennie Robinson, Gary Schmidt, Eddie Thornton, as they lead the grand stand girls in a Victory yell.

Pep Squad-Drill Team

Split second precision and unbeatable unity and rhythm characterized the IWA Drillteam which made its debut during the 1961 Cavalier football season, as favored half-time entertainment.

They knew we were coming, so these Home Ec. Club officers mustered up their Betty Crocker skills and baked a cake, complete with a crown of cherries.

The close of one era is crowned by the beginning of another. A brief four years, beginning in September, 1958, through May of 1962, are honor-

Your graduation from high school is more important today than ever before. You are in at the beginning of the Electric Age - an age of electricity from the atom, of thinking machines and push-button controls. This new age will require more knowledge and will offer new challenges.

Electricity, already man's greatest work-saver, will be doing even more for you in the future. And the men and women of CPL are continually planning ahead and building ahead - assuring you an ample, dependable supply of low-priced electricity for every purpose.
