DIRECTOR'S NOTE

My sister and I were in early elementary school when the original 1982 film of Annie hit the screen. I have fond memories of us acting out scenes from the movie and listening to the soundtrack on LP until we just about wore it out. What a delight it has been watching this newest generation of Charlotte Christian actors discover their own joy in telling Annie's story through song, dance, and acting.

Set in depression era Manhattan, the themes of this rags to riches classic are timeless and applicable to our lives today. Annie perseveres and holds fast to hope like a beacon for her fellow orphans even through the most challenging of circumstances. She finds joy in simple pleasures, teaching those around her how the value of intangible things stack up against worldly riches. Annie even cracks the cold, hardened heart of Oliver Warbucks as they both find family and new life in a most unlikely pairing.

These themes of hope, joy, redemption, and being adopted as a child of God are woven through scripture. Our salvation through union with Christ breaks through all chains to redeem us and gain access to the full and perfect love of our heavenly father.. Romans 5:3-5 reads, "Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out His love into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, whom He has given us."

This cast of seventy five novice actors have displayed great courage, determination, and teamwork while working on this production. I am immensely proud of them for jumping into this adventure with us and trying their hand at storytelling through live theatre. I pray you are blessed by their gifts and truly see just how brightly the love and light of Jesus shines through each of them on stage.

Enjoy the show,

Leslie Niessner
