Lake Marion High School Quiz Bowl Team

LAKE MARION HIGH SCHOOL QUIZ BOWL TEAM WINS BIG IN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Lake Marion High School Quiz Bowl Team has won the South Carolina Black History Quiz Bowl Championship. The team, comprising Adrianna Caraway, Joelle Goodwine, Larissa Moorer, Jacquelyn Ramirez, and guided by advisor Ms. Jocelyn Nelson, demonstrated exceptional knowledge and teamwork.

Entering the final round behind Heathwood Hall by 8 points, 23-15, the Lake Marion team answered 19 of the 20 final round questions correctly. This remarkable effort turned the score to a 34-23 victory, showcasing their deep understanding of Black History and strategic thinking.

Dr. Shawn Foster, Superintendent of Orangeburg County School District, commended the team's accomplishment, emphasizing it as a reflection of the district's dedication to excellence. "Congratulations to our students and Ms. Nelson for their impressive performance and for representing our district with pride. They exemplify the commitment to learning and excellence we value highly," said Dr. Shawn Foster, OCSD Superintendent.

The Lake Marion High School Quiz Bowl Team's win advances them to a competition against North Carolina on April 26, 2024. This next challenge is eagerly anticipated as an opportunity to further demonstrate their knowledge and teamwork.

The district encourages the community to support the team as they continue their journey.
