

Guardianship/SSI Checklist for Special Needs Families

Gravis Law
Law : Uncomplicated

Randi L. Johnson, Managing Attorney
GravisLaw.com | 509-567-3003

Before the Child Turns 18

- ✓ 1-2 Years Before
Research and Education:
 - Begin researching SSD, SSI, and the differences between Guardianship and Conservatorship.
 - Attend workshops or consult with a special needs planner or attorney.
- ✓ 1 Year Before
Documentation:
 - Start gathering medical, educational, and care documentation that demonstrates the child's disabilities and needs.Financial Review:
 - Review your financial situation, including your child's eligibility for SSI.
 - Consider setting up an ABLE account for your child's expenses.
- ✓ 6 Months Before
Legal Consultation:
 - Meet with a special needs attorney to discuss the need for Guardianship or Conservatorship.Application Preparation:
 - Begin preparing the application for SSI, to be submitted as soon as your child turns 18.

Ongoing

- Annual Reviews: Prepare for and complete any annual reviews required for SSI and Guardianship or Conservatorship.
- Update Documents: Regularly update all medical, educational, and legal documents.
- Financial Management: Manage the child's finances, including SSI benefits and any other income, responsibly.
- Continued Education: Stay informed about changes in disability law and benefits.

After the Child Turns 18

- ✓ Immediately After 18th Birthday
Submit SSI Application:
 - Apply for SSI to establish financial support based on your child's disability.Initiate Legal Proceedings:
 - File a petition for Guardianship or Conservatorship if necessary.
- ✓ 1-3 Months After Filing
Medical Evaluations:
 - Complete required medical evaluations and interviews for SSI.Court Hearings:
 - Attend any required court hearings for the Guardianship or Conservatorship petition.
- ✓ 3-6 Months After Filing
SSI Decision:
 - Await the decision on the SSI application; this can take a few months.Guardianship/Conservatorship Approval:
 - Finalize the Guardianship or Conservatorship process if approved.

Notes

- Local Variations: Legal processes and timelines can vary by state; always check local laws and regulations.
- Documentation: Keep detailed records of all applications, legal papers, and communications.
- This framework is a starting point. Each family's situation is unique, so tailor this checklist to your child's specific needs and consult with professionals where necessary.