

Burnet "Home of the Colts" Elementary School Parent Compact 2023-24

Ector county ISD recognizes that our students must possess many skills to be successful leaders of tomorrow. Our citizens must be innovative problem solvers, self-reliant, and literate. Additionally, we recognize the need for us all to have a mutual understanding and respect for one another and our differences ensure that our students maximize their potential. This document outlines how parents, families, school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and behavior. Furthermore, the actions outlined in this compact address how the school, parent, families, and students will build and develop a partnership to achieve academic success toward our high academic standards.

ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN BY THE STUDENT:

Students will share the responsibility to improve their academic achievement, behavior, and make progress towards Burnet Elementary School's high standards and expectations. Specifically, a student will...

- Show respect and cooperation with all adults at the school.
- Come to class on time and be prepared to work.
- Complete all assignments to the best of his/her ability and in a timely manner.
- Respect the rights of others to learn without disruption.
- Show respect for the school's property.
- Practice the rules of the Student Code of Conduct.
- Give parents or guardians notices and information from our school.
- Actively participate and add value to class discussions.
- Ask questions to make sure they understand.
- Work cooperatively and kindly with others.
- Follow all classroom rules and campus expectations.
- Put forth their best effort every day and make progress toward class and personal goals.

ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN BY THE PARENT:

Parents will support our students' learning by:

- Monitoring attendance, including tardies and taking corrective action when necessary.
- Making sure that homework is completed to the best of the student's ability.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to their student's education.
- Promoting positive use of their student's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about their student's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading and responding to notices, when necessary, from the school or the school district, either received by their student or by mail, and responding, as appropriate.
- Providing a loving and caring environment, so that their student is ready and able to learn.
- Providing a time and place for quiet study and reading at home.
- Helping their student daily, in any way possible, to meet his/her responsibilities, such as completing assignments and encouraging appropriate behavior.
