

PHS for Teen Parent Related Services (TPRS)

Congratulations to our new Teen Parent Counselor Ms. Valerie Grado. She received the Outstanding Educator Award. They honored her at the Don Quixote Outstanding Educator 2023 dinner with Hispanic Heritage of Odessa.

Ms. Grado is the Teen Parent Related Services and At-Risk counselor at Permian High School. She is available to assist students with any counseling needs. The TPRS Permian Team works together to remove barriers, to help students stay in school and graduate all though they are pregnant or teen parents. In addition, we help them further their education after high school and enroll in college.

She is a proud mother of 3 girls that graduated from Permian High School, two have decided to follow her footsteps in education. Ms. Grado is currently attending San Angelo State to complete her studies to become a Licensed Professional Counselor.

TPRS September Educational Tour

ECISD Teen Parents went on a tour of the ECISD Children's Center at Zavala Elementary and MCH Children's Miracle Network Hospital on Friday, September 15, 2023. Our students found the trip to be really informative. Sylvia Duran, the child care coordinator at Zavala, started our tour.

Ms. Duran, who is pictured on the right with our students, spoke about the enrollment process, ECISD Children's Center schedule, transportation information, nurse on campus, what students are required to bring for their babies, student teen parents being in attendance, referrals for Early Childhood Intervention, etc.

The students toured the different classrooms viewing how the babies move up according to their different milestones and even begin pre-k at the ECISD Children's Center.

Hailee Rios is one of our current students who uses our daycare for the last two years. She said they are very efficient with everything they do. She loves how they care about the babies and how everyone is organized. Thank you Hailee, for the encouraging information about the daycare.

MCH Field Trip

Our TPRS students went to visit the center for women and infants, labor, and delivery. The tour began with the RN's, showing us the neonatal intensive care unit. They explained the unit is for the care of high-risk newborns. They explained the NICU rooms were private but they would let the mother and immediate family visit the baby during the time the baby was in the unit. They also told us they have a Ronald McDonald house for immediate family if the baby was required to stay for a long period of time.

We then viewed the labor and delivery room. They showed the students how big the rooms were and explained the facility was staffed with highly experienced RNs surgical technicians, and had the best 24-hour care for expecting mothers.

One of our students Fernanda Marrufo, picture on the right, gave her feedback about the tour. She said, "It was a great experience and learned so much." She also commented that she loved learning about the NICU and how they went into detail about the care of the baby and how one of the nurse's told them they still had options as a teen mom and to stay in school! She loved how the RN's were able to answer her questions. Fernanda said, "I recommend for other teen parents to come to this tour because it really is a great experience I personally love this and will be going to all future tours. I hope to see you there."

PHS TPRS Staff for College

Registration

PHS TPRS Specialist, Michelle Dominguez and PHS Caseworker, Ronda Mitchell assisted four PHS TPRS alumni register for Odessa College. Congratulations Chrisly Casales on registering for the second part of Fall Semester that begins October 16th.
