Athletics:

On Friday, the Boys and Girls Track teams competed at the Whitmer Panther Relays against all Division 1 teams. Both the Boys and Girls Teams took home third place out of the strong field of teams. The track teams are back in action today at 4:30 at home against Maumee and Genoa. Come out today and support the track teams in their first NBC meet of the season.

The Varsity Baseball team picked up a pair of wins, defeating Elmwood on Friday 14-1 and Oak Harbor on Saturday 3-2 in extra innings. The team is currently 7-0 and will travel to Clyde today at 4:45pm. The JV baseball team was defeated by both Elmwood and Oak Harbor over the weekend. The JV team will host Clyde today at 4:45pm.

The Varsity Softball team split their two games this weekend, defeating Elmwood on Friday but falling to Oak Harbor on Saturday. The JV team will host Clyde today at 5 pm. The Varsity team will return to action tomorrow at Fostoria.

Prom Information:

Prom is approaching quickly! Our prom is on Saturday, April 27th, and will be held at the Glass City Boardwalk. If you are planning on bringing a visitor from a different school a Visitor Request Form will need to be completely filled out and brought when you purchase the tickets. These forms can be found on the Eastwood High School website or in the office.

Tickets will be sold before school in the Eagle's Nest April 9-12 from 7:15-7:40. The tickets are $50 per person and will include dinner, dance, and extras. Tables can only be chosen AFTER tickets are purchased.

Eclipse Glass:

We are collecting your eclipse glasses in the High School Office!! Please bring in your glasses by Friday. All glasses in good condition will be recycled by Astronomers Without Borders for use in other countries to safely view future eclipse events.

FCA:

There will be an FCA meeting tomorrow at 7:15am in the study hall. Come hear Pastor Jeremy Robinson speak. Breakfast will be provided. Everyone is welcome!
