

Emmett - ELA Curriculum MAPS & Priority Standards Alignment Proposed Professional Development

	Description & Tentative Dates	Cost
District Pre-Planning Craig & Isa	Needs Assessment Objective: Gather information on the current status of curriculum maps in ELA across the schools and clearly define k-12 priority standards. Tentative plan for 5 sessions below (may vary based on needs of each session) Craig will identify a k-12 team for a 5 series training session.
Session 1	● Review existing curriculum maps from each grade level. ● Identify strengths, weaknesses, and areas for improvement. ● Identify/define Essential components for all k-12 MAPS ○ Define school level next steps to adapt/improve current curriculum Maps Templates ● K-12 vertical and horizontal teaming- Identifying/reviewing Priority Standards: Engage team in a collaborative activity to identify and align the priority standards in ELA for their respective grade levels. ● Making connections to curriculum maps and Priority Standards ■ Define Next Steps - working session Proposed date: June 4th or 5th	: 1, 250.00
Session 2	● Hands-on Mapping Exercise: Collaborative teaming to review current curriculum maps and identify areas where priority standards may be missing or underrepresented. ○ Next steps & working session for adjusting MAPS as defined in above activity Proposed date: June 18th	1.250.00

Session 3	- Aligning assessments with priority standards on the curriculum MAPS to ensure accurate measurement of student learning. - Types of Assessments: Review alignment k-12 of priority standards to all assessment types within the curriculum MAPS (formative, summative, performance-based) and their role in assessing priority standards k-12. Next steps: work session: Assessment Review and Modification: Allow time for the team to review their current assessments and modify them to better align with priority standards. Proposed date: June 19th	1,250.00
Session 4	Can be- Individualized by school based on NEEDs and adopted materials and resources Strategies for Curriculum Alignment to Priority standards through backwards mapping - Aligning districts adopted curriculum resources, instructional materials, and teaching strategies with priority standards. - Assuring alignment with a 4 day schedule Dates TBD- based on needs Proposed last week in June or July 8-10th or early August	1,250.00
Session 5	Continued: Strategies for Curriculum Alignment - Review final alignment of curriculum resources, instructional materials, and teaching strategies with priority standards. - Assuring alignment with a 4 day schedule Whole Group - FINAL Review - K-12 team collaboration- gallery walk protocol of school wide MAPS for final feedback and adjustments Dates TBD- based on needs Proposed dates: last week in June or July 8-10th or early August	1,250.00

Session 1-5 Package option	Purchase the above 5 sessions - as a combined series of FIVE training sessions.	5, 950.00

- Total Cost of Purchasing Each Session Individually: $6,250.00
- Cost of Combined 5 Series Package: $5,950.00

Schedule A

Payments Made To:

Erudio Consulting
2361 S Ridgeview Way
Boise, ID 83712

Quote Title: Emmett Middle SchoolContact: CraigQuote Date: 4/9/2024

PRODUCT NAME	PRICE
School-Wide K-12 Priority Standards Alignment Through Curriculum Mapping	$5,950.00

Notes: Erudio Consulting coach will meet with the designated employee(s) to conduct the proposed sessions as defined in the proposal.

This proposal is designed to meet the focused areas noted in the overview. If additional services are requested either an additional project proposal and or hourly rate can be negotiated based on the identified needs. The proposed price is based on package items. If choosing to ala cart selected items, cost may differ and a new proposal should be requested.

By signing Schedule A you agree to the selected services and agree to pay the quoted amount within 30 days of receipt.
All services will be completed during a series of summer work sessions and will conclude no later than (August, 2024).

Please print, scan, sign and email back to: amberjeanpearson@gmail.com

Signature: 	Printed Name: Craig Wood
Date: 4/12/24	Title: Superintendent