DESIRED STUDENT OUTCOMES:

The goal of the Somers Central School District is for our students to become:

a. proficient readers, writers and communicators
b. complex thinkers, problem solvers and decision makers
c. collaborative workers
d. quality producers
e. self-directed learners
f. effective users of technology
g. healthy and physically fit individuals
h. appreciative performers, audiences, and creators of the arts
i. understanding and accepting members of a diverse society and world as knowledgeable, responsible and involved citizens

Adoption date: November 22, 1993
Revised: September 15, 2009