OPENING EXERCISES

All homeroom teachers should observe the opening exercises with the class. These exercises include the salute to the flag. Time should be taken to discuss what the flag and flag salute represent.

Students may be excused from participation in the daily flag salute exercises for the following reasons:

1. because of religious reasons or objections of conscience; and/or

2. because of other considered objections.

Under no circumstances may an excused student interfere with the opportunity of other students to participate in the daily flag salute exercise.
