ALTERNATIVE SCHOOL PROGRAMS

The Board of Education may provide alternative educational programs appropriate to individual student needs including, but not limited to, the following:

- Independent study programs;
- Work experience programs;
- Regular class with related services; Regular class with resource room support;
- Special education classrooms within the local school building; Special education classrooms outside the local school building; Day treatment programs;
- Residential programs;
- Homebound instruction; and/or
- Hospital instruction.

Adoption date: November 22, 1993