

Presented by The Long Beach Alliance of Black School Educators, in collaboration with the LBUSD Black Student Achievement Initiative

THE RIGHT TO READ

A Film by Jenny MacKenzie & Executive Produced by Levar Burton

Documentary Movie Screening & Panel Discussion

Join the Long Beach Alliance of Black School Educators for a screening of the award-winning documentary 'The Right To Read.' This film showcases the inspiring journey of an activist, a teacher, and two families dedicated to ensuring the fundamental right to literacy for our youngest generation. Following the screening, engage in a panel discussion aimed at leveraging the documentary's best practices to enhance Black student achievement within LBUSD.

Date: Thursday, May 2, 2024

Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm

Location: Philadelphian Church

2640 Santa Fe Ave, Long Beach, CA 90810

Please Register Here

<https://tinyurl.com/bp77753t>

- Light meal served at 5:30pm
- Childcare
- Refreshments
- Books
- Parent Resources

Watch The Trailer

<https://tinyurl.com/24w8e2de>

Questions:

etaylor@lbschools.net

The Greatest Civil Rights Issue Of Our Time!