

Pathways in Technology Early College High School (P-TECH)

LIST OF STRATEGIC PARTNERS

NAME	TITLE & ORGANIZATION	RESPONSIBILITY
Martin Cuellar	Superintendent, Santa Maria ISD	Responsible for ensuring students have access to work-based learning; responsible for assigning mentors to students and coordinating with the Principal to schedule students for work-based opportunities; responsible for ensuring the partnering IHE offers dual enrollment courses to students via online or in-person; and responsible for keeping the district in grant compliance with the funding agency.
Salvador Acosta	Director of District Operations & Special Programs, Santa Maria ISD	Responsible for coordinating the district in federal/special programs as well as collaborating with district staff and outside personnel to formulate, develop, implement, and evaluate federal/special programs.
Gaby Monreal	District Project Manager	Responsible for overseeing the P-TECH grant and ensuring that all requirements and artifacts are met and collected.
Yadira Flores	Principal, Santa Maria ISD	Responsible for overseeing and instructing the program and coordinating work-based opportunities with the partnering agencies.
Aidé Alonso	Counselor	Responsible for meeting all High School graduation requirements and guiding them through their post-secondary academic or vocational education.
Jose Arambul	Liaison, Texas Southmost College	Responsible for aligning student instruction with work-based learning.