Welcome to Our Weekly POP Newsletter

We Honor the Pack!

"Don't Be Late; You'll Miss Something Great"

What is Tardy?

A student arriving to school after the bell, chime or buzzer has sounded

If Tardy...

A student receives an entry pass after being signed in at the front office

Leadership, Scholarship, Citizenship

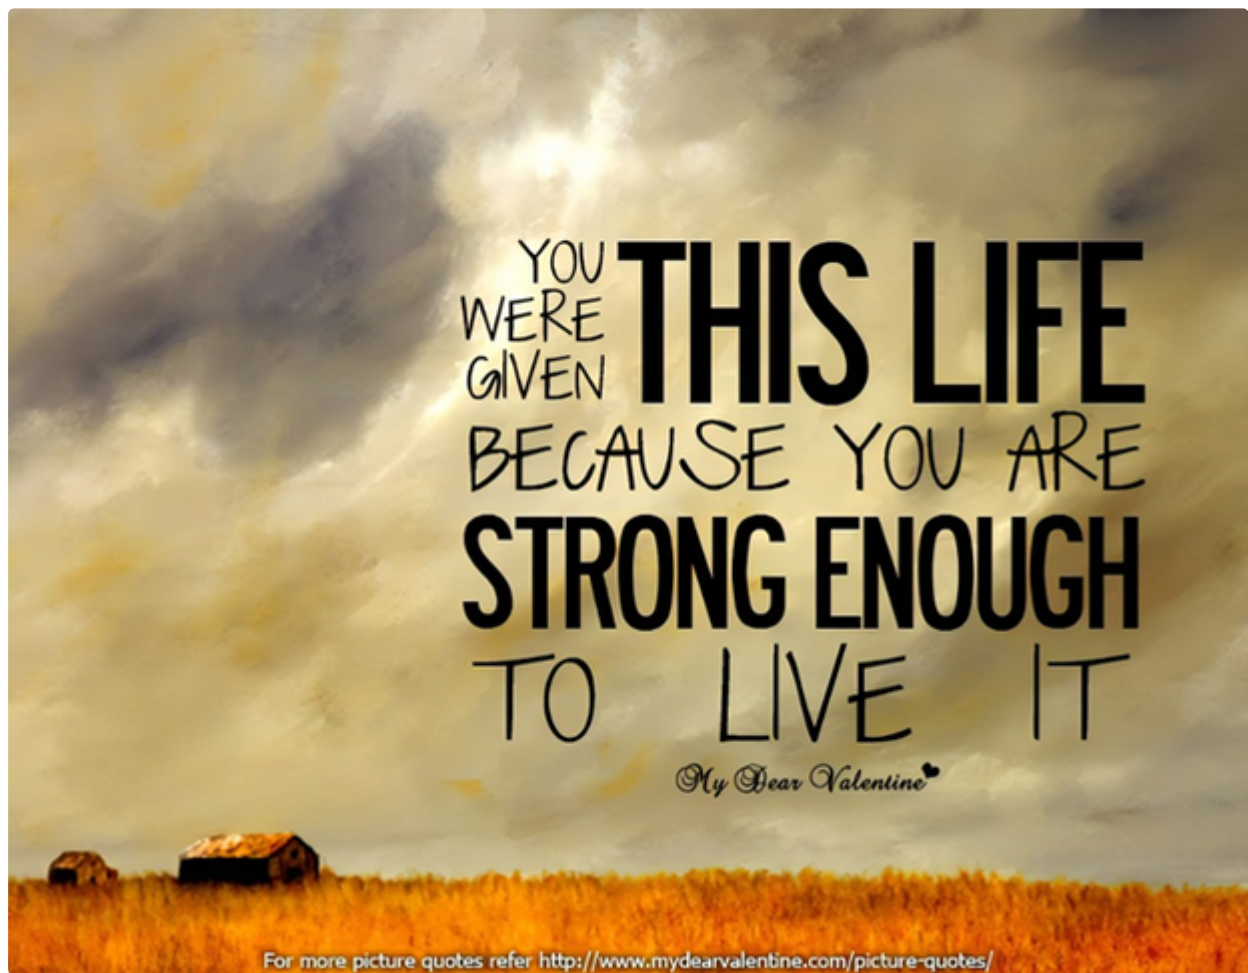

If your student is late only...	That equals...	Which is...	Over 13 years of school
10 minutes per day	50 minutes per week	Nearly 1 and a half weeks per school year	Almost half of a school year
20 minutes per day	1 hour 40 minutes per week	Over 2 and a half weeks per year	Nearly 1 full school year

Classroom time is critical and we need our students to be present and on time daily!

What Can You Do to Help?

- Wake up early enough to get ready and arrive to school 20 minutes early to avoid long carpool lines, allow your student time to enjoy breakfast, and get ready to start their school day off right!
- Utilize District bus transportation to make sure your child arrives to school on time.
 - Set a regular bedtime schedule and morning routine.
 - Prepare clothes and book bags at night.
- Communicate any issues you may have arriving on time with school personnel.

The Time Is NOW– Help Us Make Every Minute Count!

DIDLS LITERACY STRATEGY

DIDLS is a strategy for analyzing tone. It usually applies to a written or oral text. It's an acronym that stands for diction, imagery, details, language, and structure (Scott, Alisa. The Visual Communication Guy)

Tone is the speaker's attitude. It is the emotion that the author uses to communicate about the subject. The tone shows meaning that goes beyond the words in the story.

From there, you can move on to analyzing the different elements that make up tone

D- Consider the Diction

Diction is the word choice that an author uses. It refers to the specific phrasing and vocabulary in a text. The word choice conveys a particular connotation to persuade audiences.

Questions to ask about Diction

- What words does the author choose?
- Why does the author choose these specific words?
- What are the connotations associated with that choice?

I- Examine the Imagery

Imagery is the use of vivid descriptions and figures of speech. Imagery provides mental pictures of things mentioned in the text. The author uses imagery to appeal to the audiences' senses.

Questions to ask about Imagery

- What images does the author use?
- What senses does the author appeal to?
- What does the author's use of images tell you about his/her writing style?

D- Identify the Details

Details are the facts that are included in the text. They make up the information that is included in or excluded from a text. Details help to shape perspective and purpose of the text.

Questions to ask about Details

- What facts does the author exclude?
- Why does the author include or exclude these details?

L- Describe the Language

Language is the overall use of words. It is the characteristics of the text as a whole, not just pieces of diction used. Language includes consideration of an overall theme within the words of a text, such as use of jargon or formal language.

Questions to ask about Language

- What is the overall impression of the language the author uses?
- Does the language reflect a certain level of education or a particular profession?
- What style does the language convey?

S- Evaluate the Structure

Structure refers to the format that the author uses. Structure refers to overall organizational format and syntax (sentence-level organizational format). The way that a text is structured can influence the audience's attitudes.

Questions to ask about Structure

- How is the format of the text organized?
- How are the sentences written?
- What impression does the structure give?

Howard's Annual Poetry Out Loud Contest

Howard's annual Poetry Out Loud contest is this Wednesday, January 26th, after school in the auditorium. To participate, students memorize and recite a poem from the Poetry Out Loud website. Interested students must submit the title of the poem they have selected to memorize to their English teacher by the end of the day on Monday, January 24th. If you have questions, see Mrs. Farriba or Mrs. Powell.

POETRY SLAM COMPETITION

A poetry slam is a competition arts event in which poets perform spoken word poetry before a live audience and a panel of judges. Culturally, poetry slams are a break with the past image of poetry as an elitist or rigid art form. Typically, poems read at poetry slams have a strong rhythm to them and are often on issues that the speaker is passionate about.

The work is judged as much on the manner and enthusiasm of its performance as its content or style.

If you are interested please see Mr. Partain in room 136 or Mrs. Johnson in the media center.
