

Behaviour Management Procedures

PRINCIPLES

1.1. At St Dunstan's College, a sense of community is at the centre of how we interact. We support pupils to have effective and safe working relationships and to show respect for others inside and outside of the College.

1.2. Positive behaviour is encouraged by informal praise, as well as by the use of a rewards system that formally recognises academic achievement and progress, contributions to co-curricular life and excellent conduct and informally rewards enthusiasm and participation through the College House system.

1.3. Pupils are expected to maintain the highest standards of conduct, to accept responsibility for their actions, to act in accordance with the College values and to encourage others to do the same. If a poor choice has been made, pupils should engage with the restorative process to repair relationships and/or accept an appropriate sanction if necessary, in accordance with the below guidance.

1.4. The College recognises that high quality behaviour for learning is underpinned by many factors, including positive relationships, routines and consistency, engaging lessons and recognition of pupils' successes.

1.5. Throughout the College (including EYFS), corporal punishment is not used or threatened. Sanctions will never be imposed that are either degrading or humiliating. A sense of mutual trust lies at the heart of the College's beliefs and ethos.

1.6. Pupils are actively encouraged to understand and abide by the College Rules, which outline the behaviour expectations in all contexts to reflect the values of the College. Where actions and choices are of benefit to individuals or the College, we seek to reward, and where they are harmful, we seek to remind pupils of expectations, give warnings of possible consequences, engage the restorative process and sanction, as appropriate.

1.7. Consistency in expectations and consequences is important for both staff and pupils, and the rewards and sanctions guidance below aims to promote clarity, consistency, and responsibility.

1.8. The College will consider reasonable adjustments necessary to ensure pupils with a disability are not inadvertently discriminated against, in line with the guidance in the Equality

Act 2010. This may include; for example, training staff in de-escalation and supervision techniques for a pupil whose disability causes him/her to lash out at others. A pupil engaging in arson, theft, sexual abuse, exhibitionism or voyeurism occurring as a result of a disability is not protected under the Equality Act.

EXPECTATIONS

We expect our pupils to:

1. arrive to school, lessons and activities ready for learning and on time, with correct equipment, dress and academic work
2. behave respectfully to all members of the St Dunstan's and wider community, including other pupils, teaching and support staff and to look after our shared environment.
3. act in accordance with the College values, allowing all members of the community to feel safe from unkind behaviour, rudeness, bullying, harassment or discrimination.
4. engage with restorative reparative approaches and/or sanctions when poor conduct has occurred in an honest and reflective way.

We expect our staff to:

1. build positive working relationships with pupils in the College, using clear and consistent routines to promote positive choices and to prevent poor conduct from occurring in the first place and ensuring that their response to any incidences of poor behaviour is calm, fair and recognises pupils' individual pupil needs.
2. be proactive in ensuring good behaviour and high expectations at all times during the school day, whether in a lesson, corridor or recreational space. This responsibility applies at all times, whether 'on-duty' or not.
3. ensure pupils are rewarded appropriately, including with verbal, specific praise, commendations, communication to parents and College awards.
4. communicate promptly and effectively with pupils, colleagues and parents as appropriate to the situation, and in accordance with Behaviour Management Procedures, using iSAMS and/or MyConcern as appropriate.

INFORMAL BEHAVIOUR MANAGEMENT

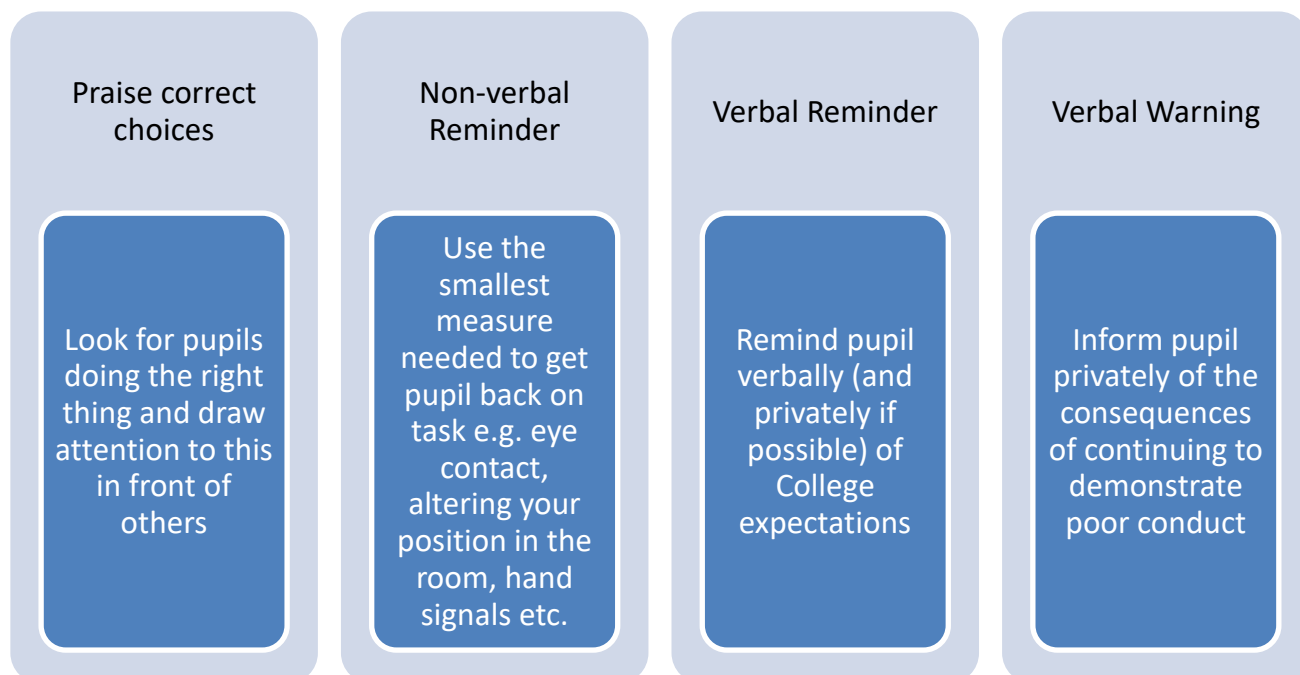

Excellent behaviour is to be expected from all pupils in the College. Positive celebration and reinforcement of good behaviour for learning helps to ensure that all pupils reach the standards we expect of them, both inside and outside of lessons. In addition, building strong relationships within the community increases the likelihood of pupils continuing to strive to meet our high expectations.

In instances where conduct falls short of expectations, it is expected that staff use their professional judgement to intervene and remind pupils of our high expectations and of possible consequences. Skilful behaviour management and consistent routines can help pupils to self-regulate and reduce the likelihood of behavioural issues escalating to the extent that a sanction is required and staff are trained in how to intervene in a timely way to nip problems in the bud. However, if warnings are not heeded, pupils are expected to take responsibility for their actions which may include engaging in a restorative process and/or accepting an appropriate sanction.

Staff are expected to reprimand pupils as privately as possible; pupils should never be humiliated in front of their peers, nor should negative behaviour be rewarded with excess attention. At all times, staff are expected to remain calm and in control of their emotions when dealing with pupils.

Informal Behaviour Management

Staff can reduce the likelihood of poor behaviour occurring both through excellent teaching (for example giving clear parameters for task completion) and through intervening early, in the least invasive way, to redirect pupils from poor behaviour. It is expected that all staff employ these techniques, according to their professional judgement, to ensure exceptional behaviour for learning both inside the classroom and around the College site. We trust our staff to know when informal behaviour management can be employed, or when it is necessary to move straight to a restorative approach and/or sanction. In the case of Serious Offences, the most likely outcome will be a sanction.

RESTORATIVE PROCESSES

There will be occasions when, despite our best efforts, pupils continue to make poor choices. In such cases, the first stage response is to issue a 'callback' which is a restorative conversation between pupil and teacher. It is important that both participants in the restorative conversation have the opportunity to speak and give their views with the teacher guiding the conversation towards a resolution, which may require an apology from the pupil.

To ensure a successful conversation, adequate time should be allowed and a suitable location arranged. The conversation should be structured around the following questions:

1. What happened?
2. What were you thinking/feeling at the time?
3. How did this affect yourself/your learning/others?
4. What needs to happen now for us to move forward?

If a pupil repeatedly receives callbacks for the same issue, teachers should consider behaviour interventions to support the pupil in making better choices, as outlined below.

Pupils in the Junior School who receive a callback will be issued with a restorative project by their Form Teacher for completion during their callback time. This may be reflecting on behaviour or actions via a storyboard, letter of apology or consideration of alternative actions in a given situation. Academic callbacks may warrant a pupil completing unfinished work, or redoing academic work to a more expected standard. Form Teachers will inform the staff member who is leading the callback session as to the expected task for completion so that the pupils are supported in completing their task throughout the callback session.

BEHAVIOUR INTERVENTIONS

Before applying a deterrent sanction, it is often more appropriate to consider an intervention which is not punitive, but is instead designed to encourage the pupil to reflect on their behaviour and to enlist the support of the College community, including parents, in making better choices, as well as setting out clear consequences should support not be taken up. At the lower end, such interventions will be led by the class teacher or Form Teacher/Tutor. If further support is required, report cards, further parent meetings and action plans can be actioned by pastoral staff or Heads of Department.

Interventions may include:

- Callback conversation with pupil
- Parent phone call
- Parent meeting with Head of Year/Head of Department
- Digital report card to Head of Year/Head of Department
- Parent Meeting with Head of Section and Action Plan
- Parent Meeting with Deputy Head Pastoral and Behaviour Contract

- Parent Meeting with Head/ Head of Junior School and final Behaviour Contract

Notes should be taken of parent meetings and phone calls which are then shared with parents. For meetings, we advise two staff members to be present where possible to support with this.

Sanctions and restorative approaches in EYFS

Throughout the EYFS years staff use positive, verbal praise and celebrate positive behaviour choices at every opportunity and together as a community we discuss how our positive choices makes others feel happy and safe.

If Nursery children demonstrate inappropriate behaviour, such as being physical with other children, not participating in tidying up routines or not following teacher instructions, they are spoken to individually about the impact their behaviour is having on others and the consequence they may receive if they continue. If that behaviour continues the child is given an appropriate consequence which may include missing out on some playtime or a toy being removed from play. If this behaviour continues, the child may be removed from the class and asked to spend some time in another classroom to reflect. Parents will be communicated with via the child's orange communication book or via email and a meeting may be arranged to discuss further support for the child.

The rewards and sanctions policy is similar in the Reception year, however in Reception a visual behaviour chart is used which gives the pupils a visual reminder of expectations. Correct behaviour choices are celebrated by children moving up the behaviour chart, and children are given warning for inappropriate behaviour by moving their name down the behaviour chart. Examples of inappropriate behaviours may include being physical with other children, not participating in tidying up routines or not following teacher instructions Reception parents are able to communicate with school staff via the reading record or direct email. Teachers may request a meeting with parents if children are receiving consequences for repeated behaviours and an individualised plan may be made to promote appropriate behaviour. This may include 1:1 discussion time with teachers, the use of social stories or individual behaviour charts. If a child has demonstrated serious, dangerous or inappropriate behaviour it will be logged on the call back system on iSAMS and parents will be contacted to discuss the severity of the incident.

In the event of a child receiving more than 3 call backs in a term the Deputy Head Pastoral and Head of Pre-Prep will be informed and may enter discussion with the child's family to put further measures in place.

Serious Offence: infractions that incur the most serious sanctions. Any single act or developing pattern of behaviour may be deemed a Serious Offence at the discretion of any member of the College Leadership Team. Any offence may be deemed a ‘Serious Offence’ in the professional judgement of the Head, Deputy Head Academic, Deputy Head Pastoral or Head of Junior School, given the circumstances and context of the offence. Serious Offences include but are not limited to:

- Drug abuse including supply, possession or use
- Alcohol abuse
- Smoking or vaping
- Theft, blackmail
- Leaving the College Site during the School Day without leave
- Wilful truancy from timetabled lessons or activities, including assemblies and registration periods
- Bullying, including cyberbullying
- Persistent refusal to follow staff instructions or verbal abuse of staff
- Physical assault, threatening behaviour or intimidation
- Fighting, regardless of extent of physical contact or injury
- Sexual harassment or violence
- Racist, sexist, homophobic or transphobic abuse, or any abuse relating to a protected characteristic
- Sexual misconduct including the supply and possession of pornography
- Vandalism or Wilful damage to property through poor behaviour choices
- Certain violations of the College’s Pupil Acceptable Use Policy for ICT or the College’s Bring Your Own Device Policy
- Possession or use of unauthorised firearms or other weapons
- Cheating, including plagiarism (not limited to public examinations)
- Malicious allegations against staff
- Persistent attitudes or disruptive behaviour which are inconsistent with the College’s ethos, including on social media
- Bringing the College into disrepute, whether on site, off site or online
- Failure to adhere to an agreement made as part of an Academic or Conduct Sanction, for example a Behaviour Agreement
- Parental or pupil behaviour which, in the Head’s reasonable opinion leads him to believe that removal of the pupil from the College is in the best interests of the College or the pupil

FOLLOW UP ON SANCTIONS AND REWARDS

Tutors in the Senior School will be made aware via iSAMS email of any sanction or reward that is issued for one of their tutees. It is expected that tutors follow up each of these with a discussion with the pupil, extending congratulations or talking about how future sanctions might be avoided. Tutors should monitor rewards and sanctions on a weekly basis and report positive or worrying trends to their Head of Year (HoY) for follow-up. Follow up from HoY might include further rewards or sanctions.

If a teacher or tutor feels that sanctions aren't being properly applied, or that a sanction is disproportionate, they should speak to the appropriate HoY in the first instance or the Deputy Head Pastoral should the outcome be unsatisfactory.
