Appendix B: Assembly Points

Appendix C: CCF armoury

Throughout the year, the CCF may hold small quantities of Ordnance, Munitions and Explosives (OME) in the Magazine prior to, and potentially for a short period following, an exercise. Should a fire develop in the Stores or surrounding area at this time, there is a possibility that OME stored in the magazine could be affected.

The magazine is located in the Contingent Commander's office, just inside the CCF Stores. If the OME is being stored in the Magazine, the below sign (Fig.1) will be displayed on the outside of the internal office door. This will signify to emergency services that OME natures are present and will inform their decision making in how they deal with the incident.

The actions for responding to a fire involving OME are:

- 1) Evacuate immediately.
- 2) Contact London Fire Brigade, and other relevant emergency agencies without delay, detailing the nature of the incident & explicitly stating that OME (Specify type Live/Blank/Pyrotechnics if possible) is involved.
- 3) DO NOT attempt to fight the fire. Preservation of life / Prevention of harm is the priority.

For further information, please refer to the MOD Fire Risk Assessment for St Dunstan's College CCF Office, which is held by the School Staff Instructor (SSI).

Appendix E: out of hours pupil activities

Pupil activities may take place term-time Monday to Friday from 1615 to 1730 under staff supervision, without advanced approval.

All on-site activities (e.g. revision classes, rehearsals, detentions) that involve pupils before 0745 or after 1730, and at any time over the weekends and in the holidays require advanced approval by the Calendar Meeting. This should be done by requesting calendar clearance and then submitting an event planning form in the normal way.

Why approval is required

Approval is required to ensure that:

- Estates staff are aware of activities taking place across the College. Appropriate resources need to be put in place (e.g. cleaners) and to ensure there is no conflict with engagement of out-of-hours contractors, other events etc.
- That the Enterprise team are aware of College activities taking place across the estate to avoid conflicts with external hire arrangements.
- The staff hosting the onsite activities are aware of the different procedures for out-of-hours activities. This includes:
 - o Letting the Estates team know when they arrive and leave.
 - o Holding a register of attendees and then taking responsibility for the group in the event of a fire. Reporting attendance to the Incident Lead.
 - o Ensuring that pupils are fully supervised and ensuring they are escorted off -site at the end of the session.
 - o Understanding what first aid and incident arrangements are in place.
 - o Ensuring that pupils understand the College out-out-of-hours is an open site meaning that the same vigilance should be applied as for a school trip. E.g. Staff should limit pupils being left unsupervised in other parts the building.
