How to be involved

Jean Massieu Academy is proud to introduce our 2023—2024 Parent University program. The program is designed to help inform parents and family members, communicate important events throughout the year, and recognize parents for becoming involved in our campus throughout the school year.

- PRE-K through 12th grade parents are welcome to take part in the new program, “Parent University” by engaging in upcoming events. Please complete the “Parent Compact” form that was sent out. You can also access the form on our website under “Parent Family Engagement” <https://www.jeanmassieu.com/>
- Attend the meetings and the family training/ activities throughout the school year.
- Talk to your child’s teacher about how to help/volunteer in the classroom via email.
- If you do not know your child’s teacher email, please email schoolinfo@jmaisd.org
