Mr. Stanley Rogers

ORANGEBURG COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT APPOINTS NEW ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL AT NORTH MIDDLE/HIGH SCHOOL

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Stanley Rogers as the new Assistant Principal at North Middle/High School (NMHS). With a strong educational background and a decade of experience in teaching and administration, Mr. Rogers will contribute significantly to the academic and cultural success of the school.

Mr. Rogers holds a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and a Master of Teaching, along with a Master of Educational Leadership, all from the University of South Carolina. His professional journey in education began in 2013, teaching mathematics at both the high school and middle school levels. In 2021, he transitioned into school administration as an Assistant Principal in Allendale County, where he has sharpened his skills in educational leadership.

"I am deeply honored to join North Middle/High School as the new Assistant Principal. I look forward to collaborating with our dedicated staff and community to build a nurturing environment where all students can excel and achieve their highest potential," said Mr. Stanley Roger, Assistant Principal at NMHS.

Principal Mrs. Debra Norman expressed her enthusiasm about Mr. Rogers joining the team saying, "We are excited to have Mr. Rogers join our phenomenal staff at North Middle High. His innovative ideas will help us continue our quest for excellence in all areas of the school and the community."

Mr. Rogers' appointment comes as part of the district's ongoing commitment to enhancing educational outcomes and supporting the professional development of its staff and the academic achievement of its students.
