MEDIA ADVISORY

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS FOR OCSD MLK SCHOLARS & LUNCH

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – In a celebration of academic excellence and community partnership, Claflin University is set to formally recognize and award scholarships to the talented participants of the Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) MLK Oratory Competition. This special event marks a continued commitment to nurturing the leaders of tomorrow.

Who: Claflin University and the Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) will come together to formally recognize the outstanding young orators from the OCSD MLK Oratory Competition.

What: President Dr. Dwaun Warmack will make a formal announcement and present scholarships to the MLK Oratory scholars who have met the identified criteria for the $20,000 scholarship to attend Claflin University. This event will also include a luncheon hosted at Claflin University's new Student Center.

Why: This event celebrates the achievements of the young scholars from the OCSD MLK Oratory Competition and highlights the commitment of Claflin University to invest in the future of these promising students. It aims to foster an ongoing partnership between the educational institutions and highlight the opportunities that Claflin University offers for academic and personal growth.

When: Monday, April 22, 2024, at 11:30 a.m.

Where: Claflin University's new Student Center, located at the Wellness Complex, 1860 Magnolia Street, Orangeburg, SC 29115.

Additional Information:

- Media is invited to cover the scholarship announcement.

- Parking will be available for media personnel. Detailed parking instructions and locations will be provided upon confirmation of attendance.
