

Unlock College and Scholarship Opportunities

Help your teen get noticed by colleges and scholarship programs.

Joining College Board's Student Search Service® (Student Search) is an ideal way for your child to connect with a wide range of opportunities without leaving home. By joining Student Search, your child can receive information from colleges and scholarship programs about majors, campus life, and ways to make college more affordable. The service is free for students, and your child can easily manage their profile online.
