About Red Rock Elementary School

Red Rock Elementary School (RRES) serves students in Kindergarten through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. At RRES, teachers and staff members work closely with students and their families to help every student grow academically, socially and emotionally.

Students can participate in Student Council, Kindness Club, Choir, and other extracurricular activities

Teachers work together to help each student reach their goals. In addition, teachers personalize learning by meeting with students before the start of the school year and continuing to work one-on-one with students throughout the year.
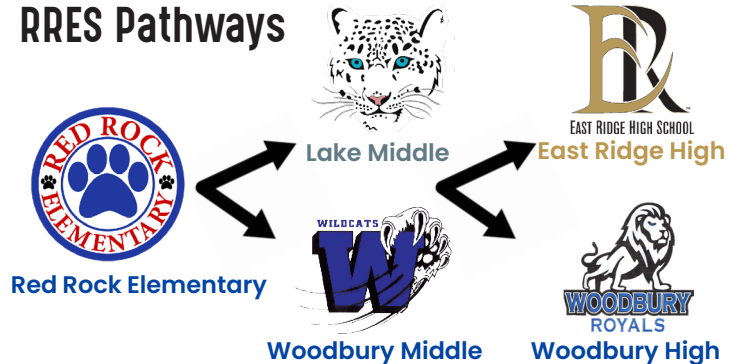

Enrollment and Staffing

645 + students are enrolled at Red Rock Elementary School.

85 caring staff members work at Red Rock Elementary School who encourage and personalize learning for each student.
