An individual reaches the age of majority upon his/her eighteenth (18th) birthday. In accordance with the provisions of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and Bulletin 1706, Regulations for the Implementation of the Exceptional Children's Act, when an individual with an exceptionality reaches the age of majority and has not been determined to be incompetent, the public agency shall provide any notice required by IDEA to both the individual and his or her parents. All other rights under the Act transfer to the individual.

Please call if you need further information about the transfer of parental rights.
