School Compact

At College View School, we are committed to working with parents and students to provide the best possible educational experience. This School Compact, developed by students, parents, and teachers, is an attempt to ensure student success and achievement by providing a foundation of support and communication between school and home.

As a College View student, I will:

- Be prepared to learn and do my best.
- Be Respectful to adults, school property, and each other.
- Follow school rules and accept consequences for my actions.
- Do my homework assignments and ask for help when I don't understand.
- Use my binder reminder/Take Home Tuesday folder as a communication link between my parents and my teacher.
