

ABSENCE OF CUSTODY PAPERS – PENDING DIVORCE

(mother and father listed on birth certificate and are currently in the process of obtaining a divorce addressing custody through the courts)

Student’s Name: _____

Biological Mother (as listed on birth certificate): _____

Biological Father (as listed on birth certificate): _____

Since no custody papers exist for the child listed above, I acknowledge that both parents on the birth certificate will have full access to the child. This includes access to his/her educational records, the right to meet with his/her teacher, the right to eat lunch with him/her, and the right to check him/her out of school and the right to withdraw him her from school without permission from the other parent. (FERPA, 1974.)

Furthermore, I understand it is my responsibility to provide the school with a copy of the final divorce decree outlining the final custody arrangements we have agreed upon and ordered through the courts.
