

Do kids still go outside if it is snowing?

Yes, kids will still have outside recess. Building principals monitor the weather and decide to keep student inside during extreme weather. We encourage parents to make sure their students are dressed appropriately for inclement weather.