

Title I Parent Engagement Plan

Beddingfield High School

Introduction

This plan outlines our commitment to fostering meaningful partnerships between the school, parents, and families to improve student achievement and well-being. We believe that when parents are actively engaged in their child's education, it positively impacts academic success.

School Information

Beddingfield High School is a rural public high school serving approximately 700 students in grades 9-12. Our mission is to provide a nurturing and challenging learning environment that empowers students to reach their full potential.

Purpose of Parent Engagement

The purpose of parent engagement at Beddingfield High School is to:

- a. Improve student academic achievement.
- b. Promote a positive school culture.
- c. Enhance communication between school and home.
- d. Strengthen the partnership between parents, teachers, and school staff.

Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Beddingfield High School has established a Parent and Family Engagement Policy that includes:

- a. Clear expectations for parent engagement.
- b. The school's commitment to providing meaningful opportunities for involvement.
- c. Strategies for involving parents in the decision-making process.

Building Capacity for Parental Involvement

We will provide parents with the tools and resources they need to be active partners in their child's education, including:

- a. Workshops on educational topics.
- b. Access to online resources and information.
- c. Opportunities for parents to participate in school committees and events.

Communication and Collaboration

We will maintain open and ongoing communication with parents through:

- a. Email and phone communication
- b. Parent-Student handbook
- c. A school website with important updates.
- d. Social media, i.e. Facebook and Instagram
- e. Letters/notes to parents
- f. Remind app

Opportunities for Parent Involvement

Parent involvement is essential in high schools, especially those that receive Title I funding. Some parent involvement opportunities at Beddingfield include:

- a. Parent-Teacher Conferences
- b. District parent workshops
- c. Family engagement nights
- d. District Parent Advisory Council
- e. School Improvement Team
- f. PTO
- g. Volunteering
- h. Parent surveys/feedback

Annual Meeting

An annual Title I meeting will be held to explain the Title I program, share the school's Parent Engagement Plan, and solicit input from parents. The meeting will be scheduled at a convenient time for parents, and their feedback will be taken into consideration when updating the plan.

Parent Feedback and Evaluation

We value parent input and will conduct surveys to gather feedback on the effectiveness of our parent engagement efforts. This feedback will be used to make improvements to our program.

Home-School Compact

A Home-School Compact will be developed to outline the shared responsibilities of parents, teachers, and students in supporting student success. The compact will be distributed to all parents and students for their commitment.

Conclusion

Beddingfield High School is committed to building strong partnerships with parents and families to create a positive and enriching educational experience for all students. We believe that working together, we can help students achieve their highest potential.
