On the Town is a high energy, dance extravaganza with well-known music by Leonard Bernstein including "New York, New York". The book and lyrics are by Betty Comden and Adolph Green.

Set during World War II, On the Town is a love letter to New York City, following three sailors let loose on a 24-hour shore leave. The sailors quickly meet and connect with three women, and scenes are set everywhere from Carnegie Hall and the Museum of Natural History to Coney Island. The Big Apple will never be the same!

On the Town premiered on Broadway in 1944, with three subsequent Broadway revivals. Gene Kelly and Frank Sinatra starred in the film adaptation. In March 2024, On The Town will premiere on the New Providence High School stage!

The NPHS production is under the direction of Craig Duke, with choreography by Leslie Ditta. Caitlin Alongi is the music director and Daniel Mango is the conductor and orchestra director. Over 50 New Providence High School students in the crew, pit orchestra, and cast have been working hard since January to bring this show to life. This lively, uplifting show will have you singing and dancing in your seat! Get your tickets to On the Town today!

To show our support for local veterans, the production of On the Town will be hosting a donation drive during each of the five performances. The following items will be collected and distributed
