

APUSH

French and Indian War or American Revolution Photo Bomb Assignment

Your task is to claim a famous image, political cartoon, or painting from the French and Indian War or American Revolutionary War era and photo bomb it! You should superimpose your image onto the scene as if you were experiencing it during the 1700's. Next, you will prepare a one-page paper, written as a first-hand eyewitness account to history (must be typed). You will need to research your selected image and the important events surrounding its historical context and significance. Your score will be higher, the greater the detail, accuracy, and immersion of yourself into the scene. This assignment will count as a project grade for the first quarter and is due Friday, September 11th.

Below you will find a few samples...Can you find the student in these images?

