Effective September 1 2023, Christmas Eve Day and New Year’s Eve Day are removed as paid holidays and the value of those days have been added to the hourly rate on the salary schedule. When a holiday falls on Saturday or Sunday, the day previous or following (Friday or Monday) will be considered a holiday only if school is not in session. Should school be in session, another day during the year may be designated or time added to vacation time, at time and one-half rate. Only regular employees shall be eligible for holiday pay.

Employees who are required to work on the above-listed holidays shall receive the pay due them for the holiday, plus the overtime rate for all hours worked on such holidays.

S. Leave Sharing. Leave Sharing will be available consistent with Board policy and state law.

T. Health insurance and other insurance benefits provided through the District shall remain in force for the initial twelve (12) weeks of qualifying health leave, family leave and child care leave, inclusive of any compensated leave, provided the District may recover the cost of insurance premiums if the employee fails to return from such leave. For the remainder of the period of uncompensated leave, health insurance and other insurance benefits provided through the District may remain in force throughout the leave period, at the employee's discretion, by the employee submitting to the District the monthly premium in advance of each payment due date, provided such continuation of benefits is allowed by the insurance carrier.

ARTICLE X - EMPLOYEE EVALUATION (Annual)

It is the goal of the District and the Union to make annual evaluations as meaningful as possible to every employee.

Supervisors shall be responsible for performing evaluations on bargaining unit employees and shall conduct the evaluations in the following manner:

- The evaluator may solicit input on the employee's work performance. Input of a subjective nature shall be discarded.
- On the employee's Union date, or as near as can be reasonably scheduled, an evaluation conference shall be held with the employee and the evaluator in attendance. The evaluator shall review the evaluation document, discuss the input provided and discuss professional development or other goals for the next evaluation period.
- If the evaluation conference is not held within a reasonable period of time of the employee's Union date and a situation arises where performance is a factor for consideration, the affected employee will be presumed to have received a satisfactory rating.

Negative information may only be reflected in the evaluation of an employee if prior counseling or discipline has taken place.

Following the evaluation conference, if so requested by the employee, a second conference concerning the employee's evaluation will be held. The employee may bring Union representation to the second conference, which shall be conducted by the Human Resources Division whose written decision shall be shared with the parties and shall be final.

If an evaluator determines that an employee's performance needs improvement, the evaluator, in consultation with Human Resources, will develop and present an improvement plan to such employee, provided that this Article shall not be construed in any way as prohibiting the District from dismissing an employee whose performance is determined to be unsatisfactory. Prior to being placed on a performance improvement plan, an employee will have been notified of the performance deficiencies and will have the opportunity to correct those deficiencies.

An unsatisfactory evaluation that is more than two (2) years old shall not prevent an employee from being considered by the Employer for a promotion, provided that such employee has followed prescribed procedures in applying for such position.

If the evaluation procedure results in the employee being terminated from employment, dismissed, or suspended without pay, then such termination, dismissal, or suspension may be appealed via the grievance procedure contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI - TERMINATION AND LAYOFF PROVISIONS

Ten (10) working days notice shall be required of the Employer in cases of lay off and termination due to routine performance deficiencies. The Employer may pay ten (10) working days in lieu of notice. The Employer is not obliged to give such notice in any case where the employee is discharged for just cause.

Ten (10) working days written notice shall be required of the employee upon resignation. The employee shall forfeit any accrued vacation pay, in lieu of such notice.

- A. Layoff Provisions. In the event that the Employer resorts to staff reduction the following guidelines will be observed in selecting the personnel to be released from employment.

The number of employees to be cut from employment will be determined by the Employer.

Before layoff, Employer representatives will meet with Union representatives to receive input and to discuss the mechanics of the layoff procedure.

B. Termination – Layoff.

1. Staff reduction will be determined by seniority (layoffs beginning with the employee with the least seniority) within each classification.
2. Seniority will be defined as total years experience as an employee. Placement on the salary schedule will not be used by reason of outside experience credit allowed for salary purposes.
3. When a choice must be made between two or more employees with equivalent experience credit, the selection will be made on qualifications and when qualifications are equal, the selection will be made by lot. Lot selections will be by both parties - the Union representative and management representative.
4. Employees will be notified of their layoff in writing no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to date of layoff.

C. Bumping Under Layoff.

1. Those employees who do not have an assigned position by reason of job elimination through departmental reductions may use seniority for purposes of bumping with the following limitations:
 - a. If an employee chooses to exercise his/her bumping rights, he/she shall bump the least senior employee within the job classification currently held.
 - b. No one shall be permitted to bump into a higher classification than currently held.
 - c. When an employee has been bumped from his or her current classification, he or she may, by reason of past experience, bump into a job classification formerly held, provided experience in that position is greater than the employee with the least seniority in that classification.
 - d. Only years of experience in a job classification may be used for purposes of bumping.
 - e. Any employee who is displaced by reason of bumping and unable to qualify to a former position, will be placed in a "pool" to later fill vacancies as they occur.
 - f. Employees reassigned by reasons given above shall retain all Employer experience credit for salary purposes in whatever assignment he/she is assigned.
 - g. Any employee working in an assignment classification lower than that formerly held may have first opportunity to apply and be considered for vacancies as they occur from time to time.
 - h. Employees will receive the salary applicable to the job classification that he/she is employed in.
 - i. Any employee refusing an available assignment will not be granted re-employment rights under this Agreement "Rehire Policy."

D. Employees Rehired From Layoff.

1. Employees released from Employer employment will retain their seniority rights for a period of one (1) year.
2. Re-employment to job openings will be based on seniority and qualifications.

3. Upon release, the employee shall make application for rehire and shall quarterly notify the hiring supervisor in writing of continued interest.
4. An employee refusing a position offered or failing to respond to notice of job opening forfeits his or her re-employment by right of seniority.
5. Re-employment rights by seniority, qualifications, and accrued benefits will end one (1) year from the date of layoff.

ARTICLE XII - INSURANCE

Employees will receive health benefits as provided for by the School Employee Benefits Board (SEBB) program and state law, with funding, employee contributions, and administration terms and conditions as determined by the program or state law.
