

UPPER SCHOOL HISTORY TEACHER
Full Time Faculty for 2024-2025 school year

DEPARTMENT: Upper School
REPORTS TO: History Department Chair
FLSA STATUS: Exempt

SUMMARY

Hathaway Brown School seeks a full-time Upper School History Teacher for the 2024-2025 academic year. Ideal candidates will possess upper school teaching experience and be well-versed in multiple areas of history, including medieval and modern world history, United States history, and other social science disciplines, such as American government, international relations, and economics. As Hathaway Brown School is the most diverse independent all-girls school in Ohio, we are committed to building a diverse, equitable, and inclusive learning community through our hiring practices, professional development, curricular and extracurricular programming, and school culture. We strongly encourage applications from people who are members of historically marginalized communities. Click here to be directed to our full DEI Statement.

We are searching for a gifted educator who can with excellence:

- Demonstrate passion and expertise in the teaching of history and the social sciences.
- Foster joy and enthusiasm for learning in a supportive classroom environment.
- Construct creative and rigorous approaches to developing a range of critical thinking, reading, writing, research, and speaking skills appropriate to the course and student ability.
- Reflect on individual pedagogical practices for ongoing professional growth and improvement.
- Collaborate constructively with colleagues on innovative course design.
- Respond proactively to meet the social, emotional, and intellectual needs of girls in an upper school.
- Seek out opportunities to expand cultural competence and to design curricula rooted in diverse perspectives and experiences.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Instructing four full-credit History classes, assigned at the discretion of the Director of the Upper School and the History Department Chair.
- Writing college letters of recommendation for students when appropriate.
- Mentoring approximately 10 Upper School students (academic counseling, community building, parent communication, conferencing, etc.).
- Engaging in the life of the Upper School (presence at assemblies, events, etc.).
- Participating in chaperoning / supervisory duties.

EDUCATION

A minimum of a Bachelor's degree (preferably in History) from a four-year college or university. Graduate degree preferred.
