What is Immersion?

Immersion means that teachers communicate only in Spanish while teaching students. They learn through pictures, sounds, and nonverbal cues. The goal of language immersion is for students to become proficient in a second language and develop cultural awareness while learning content.

Families may choose to enroll their students into the Princeton Spanish Immersion program in kindergarten or first grade, and the program continues through the High School years. Students are immersed in Spanish while they learn Minnesota Academic Standards in the core content areas.

Key Components

- Students can begin this full day program in kindergarten or first grade.
- Spanish is the language of instruction for all classroom instruction until third grade when English is introduced.
- The immersion curriculum parallels the district's English curriculum in core subjects.
- Students receive specialist instruction in English for art, music, science, technology, and physical education.
- Families are asked to make a long-term commitment to the program.
