What is Community Education?

Edina Community Education and Strategic Partnerships is where Edina Public Schools intersect with the broader community. We play a vital role as a connector, bringing people together and helping each and every learner discover their possibilities and thrive.

When you sign up for one of our classes, programs or activities, you'll spark curiosity and make connections with new friends and neighbors. Together, we are building a stronger, more vibrant community.

What our participants are saying:

"So much FUN! The teacher does a great job at inventing new ideas and teaching so it's accessible for all to learn."

"The instructor takes the time to get to know each member in class and to make sure members get to know each other to build a community."

"Teacher was very interesting, helpful, and knowledgeable. Course material was well prepared and fun."

"Us participants look forward to seeing each other and to sharing our stories. We work hard, have fun and enjoy each other's company."

Meet Ballet Instructor: Kaethe Birkner

"In over 10 years of teaching, I have taught many places and I know that what makes a place great is the people. My hardworking and fun students bring me so much joy and the Edina staff are wonderful and so supportive in helping make classes that the community can benefit from!"
 - Kaethe Birkner,
 Edina Community Ed Instructor

This could be you! Want to teach a class?

Great neighborhoods, communities, and schools don't just happen. They are created and sustained by people who show up. People like you!
