Physicians Standing Orders File: JLCD-E-1

Parent/Guardian will be notified before Tylenol, ibuprofen or in some cases Benadryl is administered.

Cough Drops – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for the relief of mild cough and/or sore throat.
Tums (Calcium Carbonate) – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for c/o minor stomach ache and/or indigestion
Hydrocortisone Cream – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for c/o itching, rash, and/or skin irritation.
Topical Antibiotic Ointment – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for minor cuts and abrasions.
Vaseline or Lip Ointment – Apply topically for dry cracked lips or dry skin.
Acetaminophen (Tylenol) – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for relief of minor aches, pains, or discomfort.
Ibuprofen (motrin, advil) – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for relief of minor aches, pains, or discomfort.
Diphenhydramine (Benadryl) – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for signs and symptoms of an allergic reaction.
Burn Gel – Administer according to the manufacturer's label for relief of minor burns.
Anti-Itch Cream or Gel – Administer according to the manufacturer's instructions for relief of minor itching.
Stock Epinephrine – for signs and symptoms of anaphylactic shock per manufacturer instructions.
Stock Naloxone – for signs and symptoms of opioid overdose per manufacturer's label.

_____ _____
Physician Signature Date
Dr. Clint Sowards
San Luis Valley Health

_____ _____
District Nurse Date
Melissa Caldon RN

_____ _____
Superintendent of Schools Date
Darren Edgar

Adopted: April 16 2024