Attention: Important Notice About Your ABG Account Balance

Within the last 48 hours, you may have received one or more emails from American Benefits Group with balance statements, regarding accounts that transferred from Wellness IQ. Unfortunately, these notifications were sent in error, before the migration process was complete. Consequently, the information in these balance statements does not accurately reflect activity in your account. Please disregard any account balance statements you received from American Benefits Group (ABG) within the last 48 hours. Your account balance is now up to date and the migration has been completed. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

You can now view accurate account information by logging in to the WealthCare Portal. You will need to first register your account in the WealthCare Portal before you can log in:
