

ENGLISH COMPOSITION

1021 & 1022

Sign up for English Composition and start your college journey while in high school.

What Will You Learn?

We analyze the connections between humans and the environment through analytical, persuasive, and argumentative writing.

Students will improve their skills over time and be prepared for upper-level college courses.

This class is a lot of fun, and students feel proud of themselves for their accomplishments.

Get Started

College freshmen are required to take two semesters of English Composition. Take it now for free!

Take advantage of this opportunity to complete these classes in a fun, flexible environment.

Why Take English Composition?

GET DUAL CREDIT

English Composition counts for both high school and college credit. These are guaranteed transfer courses, and are free.

WORK ANY TIME OF DAY

English Composition is offered in an asynchronous online format. Students have one weekly deadline and can work any time.

RECEIVE PERSONAL SUPPORT

Ms. Martin, the course instructor, is available via email and Google Meet to support students individually.

Have Questions?

Patty Martin, MA, MEd patty.martin@bvsd.org

“My writing improved SO much in just one semester!”
ENG 1021 student