1. PSA President Call to Order/Welcome Heather Curtin

2. Introduction of Guests & Principals' Reports
  - Dr. David Kristofic - School wide Kahoot game by Mrs. Mullaugh before break. Six days of kindness- kids received tickets for kindness and submitting them. Rams Way program - kids are submitting tickets and think the kids are staying motivated.
  - Mid-Terms - Currently, having a lot of discussion around mid-terms. Talking about whether they are necessary. Think that it is important because if they have them for the first time in 9th grade it goes on their transcript. For next year, mid-terms will be 5% instead of 10% of their grade for each semester. Teachers are including different learning assessments as part of their mid-terms to address different learning styles.
  - Parent question about whether mid-term is available to parent for review after it is taken. Need to ask the teacher but generally that information is not given out.
  - Parent appreciates kids getting used to the terms "mid-term" and "final".
  - Guidance counselors will be meeting individually with kids for next year's scheduling. Parents need to sign off.
  - Request to explain Compact/Extended classes and discussion - same content as regular but go into more depth, some additional content or go through the information faster
  - Spend a lot of time on making sure scheduling is balanced.
  - Dance - PSA asking for teacher involvement. Some teachers have said they will at least stop by. PSA trying to let Student Government have a voice in the planning. Inspired Hearts & Hands - raffle gave $50 to AMC movies, $25 to Starbucks and $25 to Panera to kick off their Spring Drive. Students will sell tickets during lunch. Tickets will have reminders.
  - Mr. Jacob Minsinger - Starting next year - Social Studies will go from the beginning of US through Civil War and Reconstruction. Adding a couple of decades to address the addition of Civics class in 11th grade.
  - Ms. Nicole Brough - Hosanna Industries - local non-profit - could not make it. Looking for some involvement from the community.
