For the hydronic pipe scope of the Boiler System, all valves, ports, sensors, check valves, pressure / temperature gauges, piping devices, etc. that are currently in the system - will need to be replaced in kind if that portion of hydronic piping is replaced during this installation.

Contractors may not remove a hydronic piping device existing in the boiler system without replacing this device in kind.

Photo attached: