You are being considered for membership in the Boardman High School chapter of the National Honor Society. Character is one of the four pillars. Check each line/space that the three character statements below are true.

____ I have not been involved in a documented incident of cheating at school for the time extending from my freshman year to the present. This would include the use of AI, plagiarism, or sending answers / test questions to peers.

____ I have not been disciplined with a Saturday School, In-School Detention, Out-of-School Suspension, or Expulsion due to disrespect, insubordination, fighting, illegal substance use, or other offenses that violate the BHS Code of Conduct for the time extending from my freshman year to the present. If yes, you have been disciplined, please explain. _____

____ As a student who has met the minimum academic requirements for eligibility for the National Honor Society, I understand that membership is an honor bestowed by the faculty on those it considers outstanding in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Eligibility is no guarantee of selection. By submitting this application for membership, I agree to accept the decision of the Faculty Council.
