

Baldwin's works explored racial and social issues in America

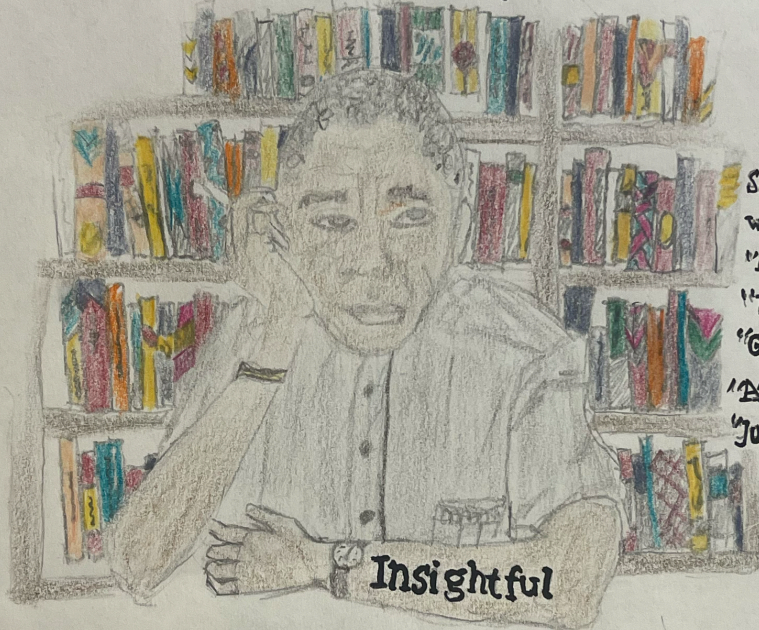

Passionate

James Baldwin had the longest FBI file of any Black artist of the Civil Rights era.

Hundreds of pages can be easily found in FBI records: The Vault

Is one of the 20th century's greatest writers

Some of his notable works include:

"Notes of a Native Son,"

"The Fire Next Time,"

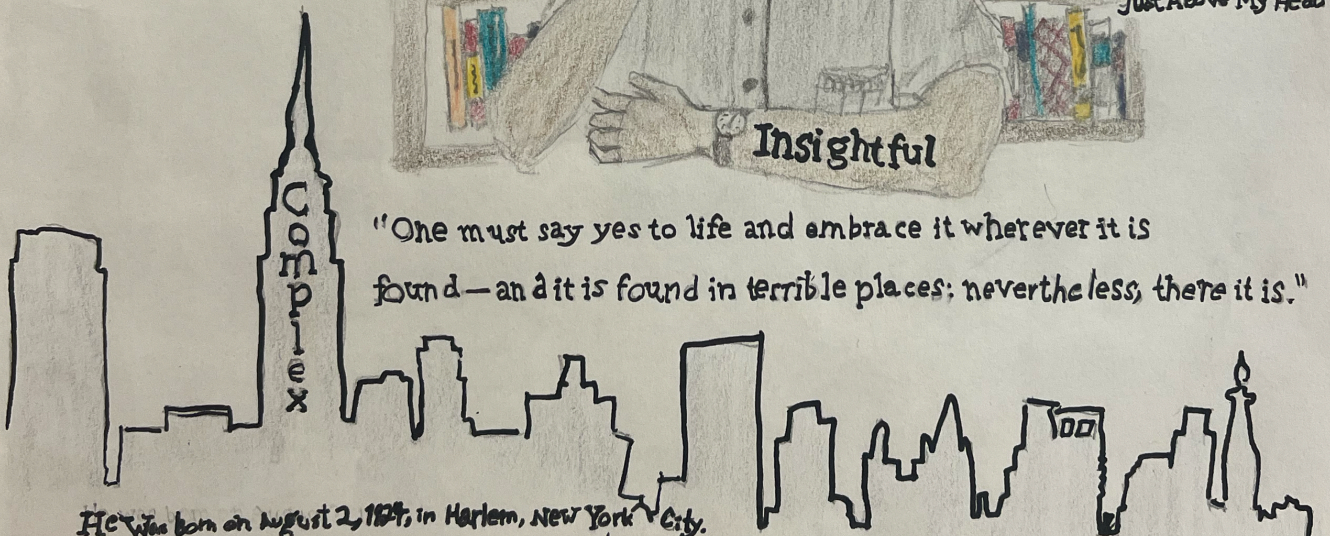

"Giovanni's Room,"

"Another Country," and

"Just Above My Head"

Insightful

"One must say yes to life and embrace it wherever it is found — and it is found in terrible places; nevertheless, there it is."

He was born on August 2, 1924, in Harlem, New York City, and passed away on December 1, 1987, in Saint-Paul-de-Vence, France.

American writer, essayist, playwright, and civil rights activist

James Baldwin

passionate

P