

UNITED PATTERSON PROFILE - RICARDO JIMENEZ

Ricardo Jimenez is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erasmo and Maria Jimenez and a proud graduate of Patterson High School, Class of 2020. While attending Patterson High, Ricardo participated in Trio Upward Bound, the Life of a Tiger program, and the Patterson High School soccer team while maintaining a 4.17 GPA. Ricardo took Advanced placement classes and entered UC Merced in the Fall of 2020 where he majors in Management and Business Economics. Ricardo credits his mentor and teacher Dave Dein for inspiring a passion for trucking in him which led him to create and operate his own trucking company, FastBoy Logistics LLC, which he began his junior year of College in the Fall of 2022. Ricardo has successfully handled being a full-time College student at UC Merced as well as simultaneously running his two-truck operation at the port of Oakland. Ricardo is set to graduate from the University of Merced California this May.
