| Resea supe habita the animal under | nimal Camouflage Pop-Out inch animals with natural camouflage er powers. Draw the animal and its at on separate sheets of paper using same colors and patterns. Cut the out and glue small cardboard squares rneath it to give the effect that it's popping out of the background! | Top Secret Hideout Do you have a large empty box laying around? Disguise the box into a top secret hideout. Design intriguing elements that perform special tasks: maybe there's a button that makes your hideout invisible, or a lever that turns your hideout into a plane or a car. Add as many gadgets you can think of to completely transform your box. | Black-Out Poetry Take a page in a book, newspaper; or magazine and scan it for words that jump out at you. Circle them, then use those words to create a poem, or a silly sentence. Black out (with a sharpie or other marker) all the other words, or create a drawing that relates to your poem. | ARTISTS ARTISTS Sean Charmati Austin Kleon Art Wolfe Tony Lewis Cas Holman Jens Nygaard Knudsen |
|---|---|--|--|---|
| Car mo and c | Paper Bag Mask ake a mask out of a paper bag. refully mark eyes, a nose and a buth and then cut. Color, collage, decorate your mask with any fun materials you have at home! | DISGUISES | Bug Find rocks around your house (or on a walk) and disguise them as bugs. Research what your favorite bugs look like, then use paint or markers to recreate their patterns on the surface of the rocks. When you're done, hide them in your garden for others to find. Challenge: -Create 5 of one bug and 5 of another, then collect some sticks to make a Tic-Tac-Toe board to play with your family. | |
| huma arou ordina (ex. | Find a Face Is that a face? People naturally look for an features on inanimate objects. Walk and your house with a camera. Find 5 ary objects that appear to have a face ar headlights appear to be eyes, an rical socket appears to have two eyes and a small mouth). | Take photos of the objects. Consider photographing up-close and make sure your "face" fills the space of your picture. Extensions: -Print out your picture or open it in a digital drawing app and add a body or other details -Write a short story about this character | Cartoon Character Disguise Have you ever wanted to become a LEGO or some other imaginary character? Use your favorite book, movie, video game or your imagination to inspire a clever disguise. You can dress up as your character, construct or draw the new you and surprise someone in your family with your creativity. | BOORS A Color of His Own by Leo Lionni I'm Not a Box by Antoinette Portis LEGO Minifigures Character Encyclopedia by Daniel Lipkowitz |
| €9€ € ∧ | | | | Newspaper Blackout by Austin Kleon Roy by Noah Kapustka Scribble Stones by Diane Alber |